LANCE BUHL and SAM LANE have launched a two-year administrative development and training project for some 40 academic chairpersons in eleven northern Ohio colleges and universities. The project is intended to demonstrate the feasibility and utility of providing on-going, systematic development opportunities for chairpersons as managers. The project is supported by the Cleveland Foundation, the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education, and the Ohio Board of Regents.

Inquires should be addressed to P.E.D. (Projects for Educational Development), 1836 Euclid Avenue #203, Cleveland, OH 44115 (215) 241–7586.

DAVID HALLIBURTON, BILL BERGQUIST and STEVEN PHILLIPS have recently been involved in establishing a new non-profit organization called the Academy for Professional Development. They will be offering over the next several years a series of public workshops dealing with a variety of issues in the area of professional renewal.
