Thanks To:
The History Graduate Students’ Association would like to extend its warmest wishes of gratitude to everyone who contributed in the process of making the James A. Rawley Conference a reality. The faculty of the History Department at UNL has provided ongoing encouragement and support of this effort. In particular, we thank Dr. Kenneth Winkle, department chair; Dr. Jeannette Jones who served as faculty mentor; and Dr. Doug Seefeldt for providing website support. Special thanks to Carmella Orosco in Special Collections for helping us find the photo of University Hall and to Archives and Special Collections for permission to use the photo. Thanks also go to the staff of the Instructional Design Center who provided immeasurable help with publications for the conference. A final thank you to the sponsors listed below whose financial support made this effort possible.

Sponsored By:
The Nebraska Humanities Council, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of History, African American & African Studies, the Institute for Ethnic Studies, Women's Studies, the Academic Senate Convocations Committee, the Office of Graduate Studies, and the Student Alumni Association Student Enhancement Fund
