PREFACE.

THIS work has been compiled with a view to providing an index to the numerous ramifications of the Pathan tribes of the North-West Frontier, in such a form that any obscure subdivision may be easily referred to its proper tribal position; but all detailed particulars of the history and genealogy of the tribes, such as may be found in larger works of reference, have been excluded. In order also to diminish the bulk of the work without greatly decreasing its utility, certain cis-frontier Pathan tribes (including the divisions, etc., of the Bangash and Khattaks) have been omitted; the Turis, however, have been included.

J. WOLFE MURRAY, Lieut.-Colonel,
Assistant Quarter Master General, Intelligence Branch.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The classification adopted in this dictionary is as follows:

1. The tribe.
2. The clan of the tribe.
3. The division of the clan.
4. The sub-division of the division.
5. The section of the sub-division.
6. Other minor fractions of the section.

The headings in the dictionary read from the lesser to the greater, thus—DADD KHEL are a minor fraction of the Drophura section, of the Khursozari sub-division, of the Nasraddin division, of the Zakha Khel clan, of the Afridi tribe.

Figures in brackets indicate the number of the fighting men of the fraction immediately preceding the figures.

The locality of the tribe, clan, or division, etc., is also given within brackets, where this is capable of accurate definition, and is not sufficiently indicated in the name of the tribe, clan, etc. In many cases the names of the headmen have been given.

“GAR” and “NAKIL”—These terms refer to the two political factions into which the tribes on the Peshawar and Kohat borders are divided. At some remote period a bitter feud existed between the Gar and Samil branches of the great Bangash tribe, and all the neighbouring tribes appear to have joined one faction or the other; although the origin of the quarrel has been forgotten, the division still remains.

"SUNNI" and "SHAIIA"—The vast majority of the frontier tribesmen belong to the former sect; and this may be assumed to be the case where not otherwise expressly stated.

"HANJALS"—Vassal or dependent settlers, amongst an alien tribe.

APPENDIX I.

The following note by Captain A. H. Mackenzie, C.B., C.E., Political Agent, Dir. North and Central, explains the various spiritual sects and denominations to be among Musalmans.

"The denominations under which the descendants of all Mohammedan spiritual sects came adhering to Islam, and
1. SAHABA—This is the term given to descendants of the Prophet. Owing to their huge number and varying circumstances, it does not follow that a Sahabaa (s.f.) is a good performer in spiritual denominations, but a Sahabaa may come to presentance as a religious, may take precedence of all other religious denominations.

2. MUNAQSA—These are the descendants of noble and spiritual families who have enjoyed a wide reputation among many tribes, and not a merely local reputation. All Munaqsa are, or are supposed to be, descendants of ahlas (s.f. mulqas, i.e., chiefly of Madeenah. The term is not given to descendants of modern tribes, but some of these may incourse of time become Munaqsa. The reasons underlying various Sahabas apply to Munaqsa also. The principal value of this class on the northern frontier are ranked as follows—

(1) Thariful Haq, Bihisht (in Bihisht, in main Bihisht).
(2) Khan Shikhs of Northers.
(3) Hareful Jil, near Mullah.
(6) Musa Tiutar, in Choochanaul territory. He died childless, but his daughters have claimed the rank of Musa as if descendants.

(7) Haji Bahadar, of Khuda.

(8) Shama Baha, of Siyar.
