AN AFTERNOON

WITH

CATHIE FIFE

Saturday, November 11, 2006

1:30-4:00 p.m.

Denton Community Center

7115 Lancaster

Denton, Nebraska

Cathie Fife Redick at 60 has few regrets but has had lots of other "stuff" (like 3 husbands, 5 kids, 7 grandkids, and many careers—the most notable as a radio personality in Iowa and Nebraska during the 80's and 90's.) She now is a well respected retailer, owner of Cathie Fife's House in Blair and Plattsmouth. Her strong suit is her love of fashion and her ability to meet and immediately know her customers. Her boutiques sell clothing, accessories, and "gifty" things for women. The slogan, "Pretty Things for Little Girls Who've Grown Up!" came from Fife herself who is still very "girlie" and young at heart.

Cathie has been dieting most of her adult life and has an uncanny knack for choosing figure flattering styles for herself and for her customers. She enjoys women, she says, because "they get it!" She has very strong opinions on most every subject and shares them with her audiences. Fife says "you can never have enough basic black or girlfriends you can count on!" She will demonstrate how to liven up your wardrobes and your lives as well!
