June 2015
President Report – Denise Fisher, CEOE

The purpose of NEOPA is to provide professional development and support for educational office professionals.

It is important to begin this year’s report with our Strategic Plan followed by the Bylaws, Standing Rules, and Duties of Officers and Area Coordinators. This has been our life the past two years. It deserves to be up front and center.

With the first year of our current five-year strategic plan, one of the first pieces of business at hand was to work out the restructuring of the Board of Directors.

While much thought was put into reassigning the previous committee structure into the new five pillars of NEOPA, some fine-tuning needed to be done. Those tweaks will likely take place early during the 2016-17 membership year. What we also discovered was that all five pillars—Leadership, Networking, Mentoring, Recognition, and Fellowship—are evident in any membership situation.

The Board was made up of a mixture of seasoned directors and those who were first time serving on the Board. It was an opportunity to meet and work with different members, but it also showed us the need to have seasoned members on the Board of Directors and to use former Board members as mentors.

It was a year of full lives outside the NEOPA realm for many of the Directors. Family commitments, personal health issues, work responsibilities, and finding the extra time to devote to NEOPA was definitely a challenge. A special voting on a few changes in the Bylaws was necessitated (and needed) after our President-Elect resigned from the Board. That also sparked a special election to fill the President-Elect position.

Many local organizations events and the North Central Area Professional Development Days were held during the same time NEOPA was planning the Spring Conference. As we tried to keep every opportunity available for the members, the NEOPA Spring Recognition Dinner was held in May for recognition, leadership, networking, and installation of new officers. I would like to see the Spring Dinner given another shot next year with the addition of a speaker during the installation process.
Several NEOPA members travelled to Rochester, Minnesota, for the North Central Area Professional Development Days. It was a perfect opportunity to meet with NAEOP members from the 10-state area and network with others who hold similar job responsibilities. It certainly did expand the opportunity to network at the July Annual NAEOP Conference in St. Louis.

NEOPA also continued focus on the 5-Year Strategic Plan. This first year continued a dedicated focus on providing professional development, the main purpose of our organization. The purpose of NEOPA is to provide professional development and support for educational office professionals. This was certainly accomplished this year with:

- First time members on the Board of Directors
- The Fall Conference focused on various Networking skills, including social media and interpersonal skills
- Two sessions for strategic planning to keep the work of NEOPA on track with the 5-year plan
- Promoting participation at the NCA Professional Development Days in Rochester, MN

I appreciate the 2015-16 Board of Directors for their efforts in establishing a new norm. Thank you to the continuing members of NEOPA for your ongoing support and participation.

Vince Lombardi said it best: “The achievements of an organization are the results of the combined effort of each individual . . . People who work together will win, whether it be against complex football defenses, or the problems of modern society . . . Individual commitment to a group effort – that is what makes a team work, a company work, a society work, a civilization work.”

NEOPA is YOUR organization. You get out of it exactly what you put into it.

OUTREACH
- Contacted OEOPA and WEOPA and offered to help – PSP presentation, social event, strategic planning, information sessions, etc.
- Contacted OPS district administrators and school principals to promote the associations of NAEOP and NEOPA. I was asked if we had presentations that could be given at their staff professional development days. A list of topics and descriptions was provided to them, as well as information on our past NEOPA conference programs and upcoming NCAPDD program.
- Question was raised if we want to put together a “Speaker’s Bureau” for NEOPA? The purpose of this would be to provide service to related associations/groups, as well as a recruitment and marketing tool.

Outreach items referred to next year, 2016-2017:
- Discuss the idea of having a Speaker’s Bureau with the NEOPA Past Presidents as part of Field Service.
- Look at outreach activities to Omaha and Wayne to increase their members’ involvement with NEOPA and keep them active.

BYLAWS
- Proposed “Special Standing Rules for Electronic Meetings” were approved by the NEOPA board. These Special Standing Rules will be approved and amended by the board only. They will not need approval by the membership.
- Proposed Bylaws change to filling the vacancy in the office of President-Elect was approved by ballot: Article VII - Duties of Committees, Section 2, and Article VII – Duties of Committees, Section 3.
- Standing Rules changes were approved by ballot to Standing Rules #3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15.
- Revised Bylaws, Standing Rules, Duties of Committees, and Special Standing Rules for Electronic meetings are included in the 2015-2016 Annual Report and posted on the NEOPA website.

Bylaws items for 2016-2017
- Review Bylaws, Standing Rules, and Duties of committees to keep them reflective of current practices. Consider further defining the duties of committees.
Strategic Plan for Professional Development:
Members were surveyed on the following:

- What skills would you like to increase, support or maintain?
- What could NEOPA do to support you in your job?
- Where would you like to be in five years and how can NEOPA help you get there?
- What do you need (skills, knowledge, abilities) to do your job?
- Is it important to you for NEOPA to continue to offer a track for education credits within our conferences?
- General comments regarding NEOPA professional development content.

Responses were obtained. A committee will be assembled to review the responses and develop a strategic plan for professional development to be presented to the board by the fall of 2016.

The content for the fall 2016 conference focused on Mentoring will include:

- Understand what mentoring is and why we need it.
- Example in practice – Tom Osborne, TeamMates
- The example will be transitioned to practice in NEOPA.
- Bring mentoring back to the workplace and/or association.
- How to build mentoring into our system (NEOPA).
MEMBERSHIP

Early in February 2016, President-Elect Amy Windle resigned her position. After discussing the issue, it was decided to propose a change to the Bylaws.

This change allowed a special election to be held immediately in the event of a vacancy of the office of President-Elect. This allows the filling of the vacancy right away. An election was held and Edie Schleiger was elected to fill the President-Elect position for the remainder of 2015-2016 and will become President for the 2016-2017 year.

The Membership total for NEOPA during the 2015-2016 year is 169 members. The breakdown of the membership categories are as follows:

Committee Report:
• We developed a new website using Google sites. The UNL Server is no longer being used by NEOPA. Our new website address is nebraska-neopa.org
• We developed a Facebook page for NEOPA. Lindsay Deahn is the owner of the site.
• Per the board’s request, we developed “What’s New with NEOPA” so members will always know what is happening with our association.
• We have a Twitter account and will continue to maintain Twitter and encourage its use by our members.
• We published one NEON newsletter in the winter. It was not submitted to NAEOP for award consideration.
• I did not receive any comments from members questioning why there was only one NEON produced this year.
• We submitted the NEOPA website for award consideration. We will use the comments from the judges to make the website more useful for our members.

Recommendations:
• Develop a photo permission form so that we may safely place member photos on our website, brochures, and other branding publications
• Develop an Hootsuite account for ease in managing our various social media platforms
• Expand social media to include Facebook groups for specific NEOPA events
• Contact Education Quest to be sure that our NEOPA scholarship is not offered for the 2016-2017 fiscal year. Contact Allison at 402.479.6619.
• Review the NEON newsletter. Perhaps produce two newsletters per year. This is still a time consuming way to get information to our members, but members seem to like it.
• Explore using MailChimp or a similar service for email use.
Mentoring – Edie Schleiger, CEOE

Committee Members:
Edie Schleiger, CEOE
Nancy Harter, CEOE
Mary Klucas, CEOE
Tenisa Hall
Lori Matthiessen
Kathy Bennetch, CEOE

The mission of the Mentoring team was to engage all NEOPA members and provide informal professional development to anyone interested. Our goals included engaging all members, offering a contact person to all new members and to providing training to all members so they will be prepared to engage someone should the opportunity arise.

It was determined by the team that an informal format would be best, especially to attract the younger employees. We also determined that we should explore editing the membership form, adding a place to check if someone would be interested in having a mentor/mentee. For those that check the box, a short survey (4-5 questions) would be sent in order to make the connections.

The team came up with the idea of “Mentoring for a Day”, which was tested at the Fall Conference. We provided members with Mentoring business cards with a space for name and contact information and the tagline “Join-Connect-Thrive”. The pilot program at the Fall Conference didn’t work as we had intended. We’d recommend keeping the program, but limit the cards to new members and first-time attendees. That will provide them a “go to” person to use as a “resource person” if they have questions.

All new members will automatically be assigned a member as their contact person. The major consideration for assignments would be to make sure the member and contact person were not members of the same local association.

The membership form will be edited to include a place to indicate if the member is willing to be involved in the Mentoring program. It will also prompt the member to select an area of interest (one of the pillars) in which to participate. This will be required...no confirmation will be issued without this selection.

The Mentoring team will check in with the mentors each month with encouragement and guidance. Two weeks later the mentees will be contacted with encouragement also.

A training video/power-point presentation with a voice-over will be developed for members to view at their convenience rather than trying to find a specific date/time for all members. This instrument will include guidelines for the participants. An evaluation survey will be created for mentees. They will be asked if they felt welcomed, to rank the program, was it beneficial to them, were they invited to NEOPA events and did they agree on a relationship purpose?

One suggestion was to provide Board Member mentoring to current members. We could possibly ask past board members to serve as mentors for those members interested in learning about becoming a board member. This could be something done in year two along with the implementation of the basic program.
The educational office professional of the year nomination forms were updated and sent out in June. These have been saved to the NEOPA hard drive. No completed nomination and application forms were received, so no award was given this year.

The administrator of the year award was suspended for this year, however it was voted on in the spring Board of Directors meeting to bring it back with no financial compensation to go with the award.

Recommendations:

- Revamp the form and make it more user-friendly to fill out. I feel the form is too long and very intimidating. We also put out the award at the start of the school year, which is a busy time for many educational office professionals. We may want to consider adjusting the time frame as well.
- Clarify social media and publicity. I think we need to look at putting these duties together as it's hard to think about separating them. Christine Cary has offered to help with using social media to promote NEOPA.
- Review the application for the administrator of the year award application, possibly making it a fill-in online form and simplifying the process.
- Work with publicity in creating a brochure for NEOPA.
FELLOWSHIP – JENNIFER BAHN

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to chair this committee. Thank you to those who volunteered to help at the conference when we needed extra help.

NAEOP Conference Liaison

Eighteen NEOPA members attended the Annual NAEOP Conference in St. Louis, MO July 12-16, 2016. Five were first-timers. Three received their PSP awards. Lisa Morehouse was installed as NAEOP President Elect and Mary Guest was installed as North Central Area Director/NAEOP Affiliations and Advisory Council Chairman. In preparation for the 2016 Conference and while attending the Conference, the NAEOP Liaison:

- Provided state pins to those individuals wanting them
- Maintained regular communication with individuals considering and/or attending the annual conference
- On behalf of NEOPA and in honor of Wendy Heslink being installed as NAAEOP President, a $25 check was sent to the Field Service Program
- Donated a Nebraska Gift Basket (a matted picture frame with $130 dollars in gift certificates) to NAEOP’s Special Projects
- Arranged to have state picture taken at the conference
- Reserved seats for the Nebraska delegation at the General Meetings
- Provided the Nebraska delegation individual flags for the flag ceremony
- Hosted a reception after the PSP banquet in honor of the PSP recipients (Jennifer Bahr, Beth Vaughn, Tricia Liedle) and Nebraska members being installed as national officers
- Presented small gift on behalf of NEOPA to the newly installed Nebraska NAEOP officers (Lisa Morehouse and Mary Guest)

Recommendations for 2016-17:

- Have a committee to help you before and/or during the conference
- I suggest you have a set of guidelines - guidelines are intended to assist the NEOPA Liaison prepare for the Conference
- Look into new state pins
- Communication.....communication.....keep in contact with all NEOPA members
• Read all requirements and set up a Google doc to keep yourself on a timeline
• Watch the timing of the state picture. Usually we try to take the picture after the flag ceremony, but this year we took it before the PSP banquet.
• Ask for help in reserving seats at the General Meetings
• The funds for the NAEOP Special Projects basket were donations by local affiliates after a solicitation request, with the balance of funds from NEOPA.
• NEOPA reimbursed the expense for the gifts and reception at the conference, but it was uncomfortable for the liaison to spend without designated guidelines or motion. Need to have set guidelines for the “Operation Celebration.”

Committee members:
Many people assisted at the conferences – thank you!
