Subject: UNOPA Financial Support for Dr. Albrecht
From: Mary M Guest/VCSA/UNL/UNEHR - Wednesday 05/06/2009 02:15 PM

Susan,

The UNOPA Board met yesterday afternoon and they approved the contribution of $500 toward the expenses of bringing Dr. Steve Albrecht to campus this fall. The board decided not to limit how these funds should be spent for his visit, and will leave that up to your discretion.

On behalf of UNOPA, I would like to express our thanks to you for your efforts to provide training for support staff to help them develop behavioral skills to diffuse potentially hostile situations on campus.

Thank you,

Mary

Dear Susan,

As UNOPA President, I would like to request funding for UNOPA members to attend the National Association of Educational Office Professionals (NAEOP) conference, July 20-24, 2009 in Bloomington, Minnesota.

The conference "Diamond Opportunities" is sponsored by the office professional associations in Minnesota, and in addition to offering education credit and professional development opportunities, the conference will recognize the 75th anniversary of NAEOP. In 2010 Nebraska will be hosting the Central Area Professional Development Days in conjunction with our state association's spring conference, and also co-hosting NAEOP's annual conference in Kansas City in July. UNOPA is the local association in charge of organizing the Central Area conference, as well as Nebraska's participation in the national conference.

This conference provides individuals the opportunity to participate in institute classes and briefing sessions on a wide variety of topics important to today's office professionals. The institute classes will be offered on Monday and Tuesday, July 20-21, and may also be taken for education credit which is helpful for UNOPA members who are working on their certification. Briefings will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 21-22, and are approved for inservice credit. A few examples of the topics that will be offered include: strategies for dealing with difficult people; newsletter design and grammar usage; Power Point, Access, and Excel classes; interpersonal skills for leaders; marketing your organization; fundraising; parliamentary procedure.

Another important area of the week-long conference are the general sessions. The first general session (Tuesday, July 21) is an impressive and memorable experience. The evening will start with the flag ceremony, in which each state flag is carried in by the state president and placed around the room. Nebraska representatives will also be wearing their "state" attire (colors of navy, gold, and white). Following the flag ceremony, Rick Kaufman, Executive Director of Community Relations for the Bloomington, MN, Public Schools will give the keynote address. Rick is a nationally respected consultant on crisis management and communications, media relations, community engagement, communication planning, and tax levy campaigns. He has provided media relations and crisis management counsel and training to the U.S. Bureau of Prisons for the Timothy McVeigh execution; the New York Education Commission and New York City Schools following the terrorist attacks in September, 2001; the U.S. Department of Education, the Los Angeles Office of the FBI, the Wisconsin Health and Hospital Association, the North Carolina and North Dakota Division of Emergency Management agencies.

On Wednesday, July 22, there will be an Advisory Council meeting. This is open to all conference participants, however, only the delegates will be allowed to vote. Peg Johnson will be the UNOPA delegate on the Advisory Council. This is a good way to see parliamentary procedures at work. Professional Standards Program (PSP) and Certified Educational Office Employee (CEOE) recipients will receive special recognition at a banquet on Wednesday evening

The Olive T. Ritchie Office Professional of the Year and the National Administrator of the Year awards will be announced at the Awards Luncheon on Thursday, July 23. Following this, during the fourth general session, award presentations will be made for the Rachel Maynard Communication Award (newsletter), the Web Site Award, the Louise Henderson Nelson Awards (association award), and the Marian T. Wood student scholarship.

Thursday, July 23 and Friday, July 24 are full days of general business meetings beginning at 7:30 a.m. and concluding at 4:30 p.m. The Higher Educational Council and the Central Area will conduct their annual breakfast meetings. Lola Young, from UNL, is the Central Area director and will preside at this business meeting. This time will be particularly important for us this year in our planning for the 2010 national conference; and Gretchen Walker and I, co-chairs for the 2010 Central Area Conference, will have the opportunity to present information on the upcoming conference and invite Central Area members to attend. The Friday morning council breakfast meetings will provide a time for all the participants from the Higher Education area to get together and discuss their concerns and successes.

Members of UNOPA who will be attending and any specific areas of participation include:

Donna Boone	First-time attendee, attending institute for education credit
Mari Greer	UNOPA President-Elect, attending institute for education credit
Mary Guest	NAEOP Bylaws Committee member; Co-Chair 2010 Central Area and National conferences, attending institute
Debbie Hendricks	NAEOP Awards Committee, planning committee for 2010
Barbara Homer	Attending institute for education credit; planning committee for 2010
Pat Hust	NAEOP Higher Education Council Committee
Peg Johnson	UNOPA President, delegate to advisory council, planning committee for 2010
Sandy Lineberry	NES Connector, Nominating Committee, Higher Education Council, planning committee for 2010
Linda Luedtke	Planning committee for 2010
Edie Schleiger	Higher Education Council Committee
Doreen Wagenaar	May attend institute
Gretchen Walker	Higher Education Council Committee; Co-Chair 2010 Central Area and National conferences
Diane Wasser	NEOPA President-Elect, delegate to advisory council, planning committee for 2010
Lola Young	Central Area Director, Awards Committee Chair, planning committee for 2010

As you can see, this is a very rewarding week and UNOPA has many members who are active at all levels—local, state, and national. Because of the budget issues this year, many departments have reduced or eliminated funding for professional development for support staff, and we would appreciate receiving any amount of funding to offset our expenses.

Thank you,

Mary Guest
UNOPA President

RE: University of Nebraska Office Professionals Association (UNOPA) Membership

I would like to take this opportunity to share with you the benefits your staff and office may obtain by your office professionals being members of the University of Nebraska Office Professionals Association—UNOPA. UNOPA is a campus-wide organization that helps office professionals stay up to date with current technology, network with other campus employees, and develop leadership skills.

The purpose of UNOPA is to provide professional growth and promote high professional standards for educational office personnel at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, as partners upholding the quality of service for the university educational system and the community.

Our objectives are to:

1. Encourage educational personnel to continue their professional growth through the National Professional Standards Program (PSP).
2. Identify employee concerns that affect the Office/Service classification, and work within the university system to meet those concerns.
3. Encourage all members to interact and learn from one another through mentoring programs, classes, workshops, serving on various University or UNOPA committees, and enhancing their leadership skills by serving as officers and heading committees.
4. Broaden their understanding of the University of Nebraska, its goals and functions, and the relationship between the university and the community.

UNOPA meets monthly, September through May, with an annual fee of $9.00. Typically, two professional development workshops will be offered during the academic year. In Spring, 2009, UNOPA will be hosting the Nebraska Educational Office Professionals Association Annual Conference, which will bring educational office professionals to Lincoln from across the state.

I would like for you to share this information with the staff in your college or division, and encourage them to attend the next UNOPA meeting on October 14. For more information, please contact the President, Mary Guest, 472-3755 or mguest2@unl.edu, or Membership Director, Julia Brebner, 472-4665 or jbrebner2@unl.edu.
