AN ADDRESS FROM THE DEPARTMENT CHAIRMAN

Dear Block & Bridle Members:

With pleasure I again take pen in hand to develop a traditional message for your annual. My pleasure stems from the excellence I have seen in you as individuals and as club members during the past year. The theme of my message to you this year is, "Are you ready to perform in the big ring?" This relates back to the circus setting where two or three acts perform simultaneously in separate rings before the audience. The most outstanding acts were located in the most prominent ring. The very spectacular acts were presented in a big ring before the entire audience.

Today, Nebraska's animal agriculture is performing in the big ring and attracting the attention of people throughout the nation and the world. Nebraska is a real leader of the national industry. Meat and other animal products are being used by the American people in the highest quantities in history and at the highest prices in history. At least seven different cabinet level officers on President Nixon's staff have taken action, made announcements or been responsible for action directly affecting the livestock industry during the past 12 months. This attention of the executive branch of our national government to the livestock industry is unprecedented. All of these things plus many others give animal agriculture the highest profile it has had in all of the recent years in American history. As they say at the circus, animal agriculture is performing in the big ring.

You are soon to become the newest crop of "rookies" or "bonus babies" in the cast of performers in the big ring. Because you chose to study animal science in preparation for a career, you have the opportunity to start off your career in the big ring—that's where the animal agriculture performers are playing now. The challenge of this opportunity is great! The rewards for success in the big ring are the greatest ever! The failures in the big ring are the most conspicuous and spectacular. We knew when you came to study with us you'd probably be playing in the big ring; we didn't know your opening performance would be there. You are prepared for that opening performance. Your preparation for and success in future performances depend on how well you do your homework and roadwork in the future. If you give your best in preparation and in the performances, the rest of the "cast" will help you succeed. If you give less than your best, you are on your own.

The Animal Science staff joins me in saying, "You'll know us by our cheers for your great performance in the big ring."

With best wishes for a great future.

STAFF COMMENTS

To people of the livestock profession—

This year's University of Nebraska Block and Bridle Annual is the fourth one we have published. It contains the highlights of the B & B club's animal science and community activities. 1972-73 saw the initiation of many new members into our club and enjoyment in every activity we hosted.

Through the Block and Bridle annual, we are not trying to just promote the University of Nebraska's club. This annual is to inform you livestock people that animal science is a broad industry with many functions. We want to inform those of you who are livestock lovers, of some of the students who are learning the essentials of animal science and intend to make the livestock business their livelihood. This annual will be distributed to anyone partaking in or interested in the animal science industry to promote agriculture, the University and the club.

As a staff we wish to thank those few club members who through their efforts made this annual a success. We are also grateful to the Animal Science faculty and staff and also the B & B advisors for their help. The support of those who advertise in the annual is deeply appreciated and those businessmen who contributed to make this publication possible should be given a hearty thanks.

Sincerely,

Arlyn Panko, story editor

Chris Votaw, ad editor

STAFF: Doug Brand, Barb Young, Andrea Roberts, and Janice Lee.
As the year draws to a close, I'd like to take this opportunity to mention what this club has meant to me this past year, and the three years previous.

Block and Bridle Club is a great organization, full of a variety of activities, to which all Animal Science students should belong. Active membership in this organization gives students the opportunity to meet and work with other students, as well as becoming better acquainted with other faculty members. The University of Nebraska has one of the newest, most modern Animal Science facilities, and is staffed with personnel who are interested in students. Block and Bridle opens the door for better student and faculty relationships.

This year, our club has not as many members on the roll, but more active members than before. Due to our new co-chairmanship system, more members are responsible for different tasks, and larger committees have evolved.

As you read through this annual, you will see that our club is involved in many activities, covering all aspects of Animal Science, plus community service projects. We offer something for everyone, and already plans are being made for a new project next year, a softball game and pork roast with the K-State Chapter. In addition, this summer, our chapter is hosting a national Block and Bridle meeting in conjunction with the American Society of Animal Science Meetings to be held in Lincoln in July. Sophomore Joe Steffen and Junior Rodger Richards, have spent much time and effort getting ready for this large summer event, which will involve B and B students from all states.

All of our club's accomplishments this year would not have been possible if not for the work of all the executive committee, the extra time put in by committee chairmen, Dr. Mandigo and his Ham Sales staff, and last but not least, the advisors, Dr. P. J. Cunningham, Rr. Robert Appleman, and Dr. Earl Ellington. My work has been much easier because of their efforts, and I thank them for their help. The strong support these people have shown for Block and Bridle makes it the campus leader it is.

Finally, I want to wish the new, 1973-74 Officers and Executive Committee "the Best of Luck" in their term and hope the Best for Block and Bridle in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Doug Brand,
President, Block and Bridle 1972
"The advisors 'horsing around' at the judging pavillion."

The 1972-73 Block and Bridle club was very capably advised by Doctors P. J. Cunningham, Robert Appleman, and Earl Ellington. Dr. Cunningham is our Senior Advisor. He is an Assistant Professor of Animal Science with a special interest in swine genetics. P. J. did his undergraduate and masters work at Iowa State before obtaining his doctorate degree at O.S.U.

A dairy extension specialist and instructor, Dr. R. D. Appleman is serving his second year as our advisor. Dr. Appleman did his undergraduate and graduate studies at Oklahoma State University.

Dr. Ellington, a reproductive physiologist, is the club's Junior Advisor. He did his undergraduate and masters work in Kentucky and received his doctorate in California.

Each of these instructors devotes much of his time in helping the club in its activities. B and B thanks them for their unselfish contributions.

THE EMBLEM

The Block and Bridle Emblem's significant to club members. It represents the principles on which this club is built. Character, sincerity, and a moral life are asked of members when they join and are depicted in the straight perpendicular of the “B”. The distinct curves of the “B” are symbolic of the social pleasure, mental energy and determination of members.

The meat block represents the material aspects of our life. The bridle stands for the behavior of B & B members, the control over ourselves that we try to maintain, the mannerisms and respect we show toward others and the way which we treat animals.
1972 BLOCK AND BRIDLE

The 17th annual University of Nebraska Quarterhorse Show was held on Thursday and Friday, April 13 and 14, at the State Fair Grounds in Lincoln.

A total of 27 classes were included in the show (12 halter classes and 15 performance classes). There were 290 entries in the entire show including open and novice cutting classes.

Marvin Copple of Lincoln donated a trophy saddle which was awarded to the best all around Quarter Horse. To win the saddle, required that the horse participate in both halter and performance classes. The saddle contributed greatly to the success of the show.

The Quarter Horse Show Chairman was Dan Witthuhn and the judge for the show was Mr. Jack Kyle from Santa Rosa, New Mexico.

The University of Nebraska Block and Bridle Club held its annual Appaloosa Horse Show on Sunday, April 16, 1972. The show was held at the State Fairground’s Coliseum in Lincoln. Mr. Jack Cook of Benton, Kansas judged the show and Mr. Gary Stauffer was the ringman.

Expenses for the show totaled $1,980.00. Income from entry fees and ribbon donations were $2,345.00. This left the show with a net profit of $365, which was split according to our agreement with the Nebraska Appaloosa Horse Club, who furnished the trophies.

This year’s show had a total of 313 entries from the 158 exhibited at our show, which made it bigger than last year.

Due to the work of Chairman Randy Guill the Appaloosa Horse Show went off smoothly and was a big success.

GRAND CHAMPION STALLION—Jerry Pabst of Colby, Kansas is presented a trophy by Queen Kathy Geiger for exhibiting “Big Hands,” Champion Stud.

GRAND CHAMPION MARE—“Mighty Hold Tight,” a mare owned by Sheva Chess of Woodstock, Illinois was champion mare.

OCTOBER 19 Alan Krivohlavek, a swine breeder from Dorchester, Nebraska, told members about his swine facilities and operation.

NOVEMBER 2 A film was presented on beef production in Iowa. It is currently being shown to consumers around the country explaining the cattlemen's story for promoting beef.

NOVEMBER 16 Dr. Keith Gilster, Extension Specialist at the University of Nebraska, spoke on livestock development in Nebraska.

DECEMBER 7 Dr. Bob Stear, from Norden Laboratory, gave a talk on calf scour vaccine, its limitations and potential.

JANUARY 18 Jerry Weiss, graduate student at the University of Nebraska, showed slides and told members about the different breeds of cattle and swine he saw on his trip of Europe.

FEBRUARY 1 Discussion centered around queen coronation and spring tour.

FEBRUARY 15 Jim Meisinger, a resident of Lincoln, spoke on raising and training Arabian horses.

MARCH 1 Dr. Norman Kruse, Nebraska State Veterinarian, spoke on shipping animals, and diseases of livestock in Nebraska.

MARCH 15 USDA Specialist, Dr. T. M. McCalla, from the Agronomy Department, reported on feedlot run-off and the problems associated with it.

APRIL 5 E. H. Shoemaker, North Platte resident and member of the National Cattlemen's Tax Committee, showed us some insights to the tax and legal system and how it affects the farmers and ranchers.

APRIL 19 M. D. Shepherd, rancher at Hyannis, Nebraska, gave an interesting talk on his set-up in ranching with specific interests in Exotic Breeds, particularly the Simmentals.
B AND B LIVESTOCK CONTEST
TEAM AWARD TO BURR HALL

April 22, 1972 was the Block and Bridle Livestock Contest at the Judging Pavilion. Bruce Rickertson, Lexington, was chairman of the event, in which 132 individuals and 8 teams participated. The contest had a junior and senior division, with both sections taking part in an evaluation session. Junior members answered questions on five classes whereas seniors gave reasons.

The livestock was well presented for the contest by “Roger Bell and his Horsebarn Crew,” while Coach R. B. Warren placed the officials on the classes.

Bruce and his committee tallied results immediately following the contest, and all ribbons were presented at the Spring Picnic the following afternoon. Trophies, plaques, watch, and cash awards were presented at the Honor’s Banquet at May 4.

In the Senior Division, the top three judges, in order, were Kent Helm of Danbury, Rick Larson of Potter, and Dave Rasmussen from North Platte. Kent was a multiple winner receiving $50.00 check from the Don Geweke Memorial, a watch from Nixon and Co., and a plaque from Union Stockyards Co.

The Geweke Memorial and Union Stockyards also provided the winnings for Rick Larson, who was second in the contest by only one point. Dave Rasmussen was the recipient of the third place plaque.

Charles Kreshel of Wilber was the big winner in the junior contest as his first place effort netted him a Union Stockyards plaque and $25.00 Geweke Memorial check. Runner-up, Leon Wissman, of Falls City, received a plaque.

In the team division, Burr Hall continued it’s winning way by capturing the Cy Winkler Travelling Team Award for the fourth consecutive year.

Block and Bridle provided the ribbons for all divisional and overall individual and team placings. Special thanks for their support goes to:

Mr. Charles O. Rourke and Union Stockyards of Omaha; Mr. Russ Kendall and Nixon and Company, Omaha; The Don Geweke Memorial Fund and Mr. Cy Winkler of Alliance.
MEATS JUDGING CONTEST

The 1973 Block and Bridle Meats Contest was held on February 24, 1973. The contest was held at Wilson Packing Company in Omaha and 19 junior contestants and 14 senior contestants competed in the contest. Classes of beef, pork, and lamb carcasses and beef wholesale cuts were judged. Quality and yield grading was also completed. Junior division contestants answered questions to selected classes and senior contestants completed written reasons following the contest.

Phyllis Bourn of Lexington receives the Senior Merit Trophy from President Bill O'Hare.

Chuck Graff and Larry White give a box of cigars to Professor R. B. Warren, Senior Livestock Judging Team Coach.
Nebraska Chapter of Block and Bridle's 1972 Junior Scholarship Winner was Robert Harms of Sterling, Nebraska. In achieving this great honor, Bob has maintained a 3.7 grade point average while participating in a number of outside activities.

Bob's B and B activities include: Chairman of our first annual Kids' Day, assistance and co-chairmanship in the Appaloosa and Quarter Horse shows, and participation in Spring Picnic, Honoree Selection and money raising projects. In his junior year, Bob was Assistant Marshall and this year served the club as Program Chairman.

Outside activities are important in selection as Junior Scholarship winner, for this individual represents Nebraska at National competition, where these activities are important. While at Nebraska, Bob has served as a member of the Burr Hall Bar-W Council, President of district and treasurer of a Five-State Luther League Chapter, has been elected to Alpha Zeta, was a member of the Cornhusker Marching Band, and worked in the Animal Science Department.

Numerous scholarships have been awarded to Bob. Some of them include:
   Daniel S. Bestor
   Baker-Gooding
   Baker-Gooding and
   Tom and Martha Wake.

Upon graduation from the University, Bob intends to enter Medical School at University of Nebraska in Omaha.
A prominent campus leader, Miss Phyllis Bourn, was selected as Nebraska Block and Bridle Club's Outstanding Senior. A well-deserving honoree, Phyll, devoted much time and effort to the Club. During her senior year she was secretary of the Nebraska Chapter, chairman of the Christmas Coffee for Faculty and Staff and was a member of Ham Sales, Kids' Day, and Honoree Selection Committees. In addition, she worked on the Yearbook, Spring Tour, Quarter Horse Show, Appaloosa Horse Show and Steak Fry Committees. She was recipient of the Work Horse Award her junior year. During her sophomore year, she was a candidate for Miss Block and Bridle, and a contestant in the Block and Bridle Livestock Judging Contest. She was especially helpful on Block and Bridle Committees such as Steak Fry, Ham Sales, Banquet, Quarter Horse Show, and Appaloosa Horse Show.

Phyll was a participant in student government and other activities. Her freshman year, she was voted Burr Hall Freshman Activities Award, Miss Burr Hall, and a member of Bar-W Council. She was also a member of Kernels, University 4-H, East Union Committee chairman, and East Campus Toastmasters. During her sophomore year, she was elected Social Chairman of Burr Hall, served on Bar-W Council, was social chairman of Inter-dormitory Association, active in All University Fund, served on East Union Program Council, helped with ASUN Elections, and served on the publicity committee and assisted rodeo secretary for the University of Nebraska Rodeo Association. During her junior year, Phyll was president of East Union, Program Council, Rodeo Club recording secretary, University of Nebraska Junior Meats Judging Team and a member of Students for Tiemann. Phyll was Rodeo Club Corresponding Secretary, a Board of Director for Nebraska Union, East Campus Coordinator for Presidential Candidates for ASUN Election, Cornhusker staff member, Junior Advisor to Freshman in Pre-veterinary Sciences and a member of the Senior Meats Judging Team her senior year.

Phyll is presently working toward her Masters of Science Degree at the University of Nebraska. She is doing her graduate work in reproductive physiology.
The 1972 Block and Bridle Honoree was Mr. Joe Watson, Cuming County Extension Agent and longtime Nebraska livestock leader. Mr. Watson was active in livestock promotion and 4-H Club work, and had organized the Cuming County and eastern Nebraska area into a great livestock production and processing area.

Due to his untimely death one week prior to his Honor's Banquet, Joe Watson was honored posthumously at a club meeting on September 21, 1972. Mrs. Joe Watson and daughter, Magdalene Peterson, were present to receive the portrait from Dr. Frank Baker, Chairman of the Animal Science Department.

Mr. Watson's picture now hangs in the Hall of Fame Gallery in Marvel Baker Hall.
When classes end for the summer, most Block and Bridle activities cease. This year the club, together with the Knights of AK-SAR-BEN, sponsored the trip for the appointed co-chairmen and five students to attend the national American Society of Animal Science meetings. The Nebraska chapter of B & B is one of the few chapters in the United States that sends representatives each year. Going on the trip this year were co-chairmen Rodger Richards and Joe Steffen, seniors Ted Acton and Dave Kasl, and Juniors Gary Kubicek, and Fred Meyer, and Sophomore Monte Stauffer. Senior adviser Roger Mandigo also made the trip to Virginia Polytechnical Institute and State University at Blacksburg, Virginia. The trip provided some interesting stops in eastern United States plus four educational days spent at Blacksburg.

At Virginia Polytech, the representatives took part in presentations of research papers, toured the VPI campus and attended the National Block and Bridle meeting. In addition to meeting students from other chapters, club members showed slides and exchanged ideas about their chapters at this meeting. The convention was very interesting and the delegates gained some general knowledge about the meeting and gathered ideas for planning the national ASAS meeting to be held next year in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Some of the stops enroute and returning home from Blacksburg included St. Louis, Williamsburg and Washington, D.C., where the students visited some interesting places.
YOUTHFUL EXHIBITORS RECEIVE AWARDS

Waverly FFA Chapter was again named Outstanding FFA Chapter trophy recipient at the Nebraska State Fair by the University Block and Bridle Club. Michael Tyrdy, Waverly, accepts the trophy from Block and Bridle President Doug Brand of Fremont.

George Grafton, 18, of Peru is recipient of the Block and Bridle trophy for having the winning entry in the State Fair 4-H Beef Carcass contest. Pictured with him is Block and Bridle Treasurer, Gary Kubicek of Wilber.

Russ Lechtenberg of Butte presents Deb Rickertsen, 17, of Lexington with a trophy from the Block and Bridle Club for having the winning entry in the State Fair 4-H Lamb Carcass Contest.

Block and Bridle Marshall Russ Lechtenberg presents F.F.A. member Dan Walla a trophy for his Grand Champion Open Class Lamb Carcass. Dan is a member of the Raymond Central F.F.A. Chapter.
The Block and Bridle Club held their annual Steak Fry on September 14, 1972. Approximately 180 people were served three roasted pigs. Of the 180 people, 76 members of the club were present. Dr. Mandigo was the chef and club members helped serve the food. The roast pork cost the club $144.06.
Introducing approximately 100 inter-city 4-Hers to the animals on the farm, publicizing the club, and promoting the livestock industry was the goal of the Block and Bridle's second annual "KIDS' DAY." This community service program, under the direction of Bruce Treffer and Barb Young, involved members by going out into the designated areas of Lincoln with their cars and returning with loads of kids and showing them the display of farm animals other members had arranged. Even though it rained all day, we were still able to have our barnyard in the Judging Pavillion. In our barnyard were a milk cow and calf, bucket calf, steer, ewe and lamb, feeder lambs, feeder pigs, a pony, yearling colt, goat, guinea pigs, and a cat and kittens. Winding up the afternoon with refreshments, the children returned home. The afternoon experience was an enjoyable and knowledgeable one for all.

Posing for a picture with the goat are Advisor Dr. P. J. Cunningham's boys, Steven and David. All of the children enjoyed petting the animals, in addition to leading and riding the Shetland pony and leading the bucket calf.
The 1972 LITTLE AK-SAR-BEN Showmanship Contest, held in conjunction with Animal Science Alumni Days, was well attended by students, members, parents, friends, and staff on October 27. Chairman Fred Meyer entered contestants. Announcer Gary Stauffer showed his oratory prowess during the contest. Ringman Gary Kubicek directed animals in the ring, and Queen Kathy Geiger handed out plaques and ribbons.

The committee of judges selected the over-all winner from individual species winners. Grand Champion Showman was Jamie Kruse, Genoa, after topping all sheep contestants, and Max Hoffman, Wilber, won the swine showmanship title before being selected Reserve Grand Champion Showman.

Other winners were—

Mark Schroeder, West Point  Champion Dairy Showman
Scott Brady, Kearney  Champion Beef Showman
Janice Lee, Omaha  Champion Horse Showman
Doug Brand, Fremont  Reserve Sheep Showman
Dick Wilson, Kearney  Reserve Swine Showman
Les Denning, Central City  Reserve Dairy Showman
Mark Schroeder, West Point  Reserve Beef Showman
Jerry Cunningham, Broadwater  Reserve Horse Showman

Judges for the events were—

Bob Fritchen, Concord  Swine
Don McClure, Mead  Sheep
Jerry Snide, Valley  Dairy
Cliff Johnson, Council Bluffs, Iowa  Beef
Don Kimbrough, Geneva  Horses

The Knights of AK-SAR-BEN sponsored the plaques and ribbons and cash awards were given by the Block and Bridle Club to the winners.

In the hilarious Professor's Hog Drive that took place during intermission, professors drove their entries before the audience. The judges were Dr. Kruse, Genoa and Mrs. Bob Volk, Arlington. First place was awarded to R. B. Warren after a long discussion by the judges.
GRAND CHAMPION SHOWMAN—Jamie Kruse of Genoa receives the plaque and ribbon donated by AK-SAR-BEN for being Overall Grand Champion Showman. Jamie was also Champion Sheep showman. She is pictured with Robert Volk, Assistant General Manager of AK-SAR-BEN and Queen Kathy Geiger.

Ham Sales netted $3,017.25 in the 1972 money-making project. This year the club sold 24,760 pounds of Hormel Cure-81 Hams. B & B members and queen contestants sold whole hams for $1.58 per pound and half hams were sold for $1.60 per pound. Ham Sales chairmen Dave Kasl, Craig Buescher, and Kathy Geiger spent many hours at the Meat Lab weighing and checking out hams.

1972 HAM SALES

Houseparents George and Bev Johnson receive hams from Chairmen Kathy Geiger and Craig Buescher.

University of Nebraska Block and Bridle Club this year delighted members of a local Lincoln, Nebraska hostel with Christmas hams. Lancaster Offices of the Mentally Retarded (LOMR) were presented Hormel Cure-81 Hams by Ham chairmen Craig Buescher and Kathy Geiger. The hams were given as the club’s contribution to the mentally retarded.
B and B CHRISTMAS COFFEE

Animal Science instructors and staff were honored for their hard work with goodies at the B and B Christmas Coffee.

Approximately 175 staff members and students attended the brunch in Marvel Baker Student Library on December 13, 1972.

To promote our annual ham sales, the club served Hormel Cure 81 ham, several varieties of cheese and coffee.

The project, headed by Chairman Ernie Gotschall, gave students a chance to socialize with staff members and was very successful.

With mouths open wide, staff members devour the appetizers.

QUEEN CORONATION DANCE

The 1973 Block and Bridle Queen Coronation and Rock Dance was held February 9, 1973, at East Union. In one of the closest contests in years, Miss Barb Young of Hyannis was named “Miss Block and Bridle.” Other contestants in this year’s contest were Chris Votaw, Diane Hindley, Debbie Lechtenberg, Carma Rickertsen, and Lori Chace. 1972 Queen, Miss Kathy Geiger, crowned the new queen.

Ham Sales Chairmen Dave Kasl and Craig Buescher announced the queen and the runners up, in addition to the top five ham salesmen. The winners and their awards were:

1. Rodger Richards ......................................................................Marlin 22 Rifle
2. Gary Kubicek ..............................................................................Kodak Pocket Camera
3. Kathy Geiger ...........................................................................$20.00
4. Craig Buescher .............................................................................$15.00
5. Fred Bruning ...........................................................................$10.00

This years dance was sponsored jointly with East Union, and was the largest ever, with over 400 persons in attendance. Excellent music was provided by the “Elastic Band.”

A friendly, well-liked and respected college coed, Miss Barbara Young of Hyannis, was crowned 1973 Block and Bridle Queen February 9, at the Winter Dance. Barb is the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Young of Broken Bow.

The Queen is a junior majoring in animal science with dual options in production and business. In addition to being a committee chairman in Block and Bridle, Barb is recording secretary for Rodeo Club. She is a former 4-H member and is currently an assistant leader. Barb is employed by the Animal Science Department where she works as a secretary. After graduation, Barb plans to remain active in the livestock industry.

The other finalists were:

Lori Chace, a sophomore from Laurel, is majoring in Home Economics Education. She is an East Union Committee Chairman, a member of Tassels and is officer of Gamma Phi Beta. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Chace.

A sophomore majoring in elementary and special education, Diane Hindley represented Kappa Delta. Diane is treasurer of her sorority, a member of University of Nebraska 4-H, and the Council on Student Life Committee. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hindley.

Debbie Lechtenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lechtenberg of Butte represented Pound Hall. Debbie is a sophomore majoring in human development and is active in the College of Home Economics and in her dorm government.

Carma Rickertson, a sophomore majoring in human development, represented Alpha Delta Pi. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rickertson of Lexington. Carma is a former 4-H member, and is pledge trainer for her sorority.

Chris Votaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Votaw of Wellfleet, represented Alpha Chi Omega. She is an officer in her sorority, a committee chairman in Block and Bridle, and is active in Rodeo Club, the Nebr. Jr. Angus Association, and the Nebr. Junior Stock Growers.

NUMBER STICKER SALES

Dave Bierma of North Platte was chairman of number sticker sales, a new project taken on by the Block and Bridle Club this year. Sets of numbers, numbered from 1-4 were sold and are still being sold to anyone in Nebraska who wants them to use in judging contests.

REPORT from NATIONAL BLOCK AND BRIDLE

Professor R. B. Warren, National B & B First Vice-president and livestock judging coach, Jim Wise, meats judging team coach and members of the meats and livestock judging teams attended the National Block and Bridle Meeting. The annual business meeting was held during the Chicago International Livestock Exposition in November. Ted Acton, club historian, saw the club’s scrapbook place fifth. Phyllis Bourn, Senior Merit Trophy winner from the Nebraska Chapter, received honorable mention and Bob Harms, Junior Scholastic winner, placed fourth nationally. The Nebraska Chapter received honorable mention in over-all activities.
OKLAHOMA
HIGHLIGHTS SPRING TOUR!

With forty-eight students, Dr. Baker, and three advisors, the 1973 Block and Bridle Spring tour left Lincoln at four a.m., March 23, for a four day jaunt in Kansas and Oklahoma. Over 1,350 miles were covered by the Arrow bus and Station Wagon, as Animal Science-oriented students visited livestock operations, research centers, and related industries.

As in the past, freshmen initiates had free transportation on the tour, with active members earning their trip through ham sales. This year, special guests on the tour included B and B Queen Barb Young, Queen candidates Diane Hindley and Debbie Lechtenberg, and Dr. Frank Baker, Department Chairman. The three advisors, Drs. Appleman, Cunningham, and Ellington served as tour sponsors.

Dale Magnuson, Laurel, and Dick Helms of Holbrook, together with Dr. Appleman, arranged a tour that had special interest stops for everyone. From Shepler's Western Store in Wichita, Kansas, to Herington Feedlots, every place visited was good, and enjoyed by all. And when things got a little dull on the bus, there was always card games or a rousing chorus of "Dead Skunk in the Middle of the Road," led by Craig Buescher.

The tour itinerary was as follows:

PERFORMANCE AND PEDIGREE

For many years our herd bulls have been selected for conformation, outstanding pedigrees and powerful performance records. This is now proving to be a winning combination as these herd sires are transmitting the size and gainability needed in the cattle industry today.

Bulls of proven ability and national reputation are being used in

The production of quality Angus is the M-Q breeding program. Our herd sires have won in the National Shows and their Get have won. Our cattle are bred to do good work under ranch and farm conditions and produce profit making Angus up and down the line . . . this fact is most important to us and should be to you, the prospective buyer of good Angus seedstock.

THINK PROFIT:

Many Block & Bridle members will be the beef cattle leaders of tomorrow. Some in the actual production of beef . . . others in a closely related line of beef work. Whatever your line of endeavor, don’t forget the extra profit potential in a beef operation based on Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn blood. Shorthorns give you — —

... extra weaning weight without extra calving difficulty

... extra feedlot gains without extra feed expense

... extra carcass grade without loss of size

Remember, too, over 30 recognized beef breeds, including many of the largest, trace to shorthorn parentage. WHY? It’s because SHORT-HORNS PROFIT-MARK THEIR PROGENY WHILE OTHER BREEDS MERELY COLOR-MARK THEIRS.

HK DANDY DUKE
OUR 1971 NEBRASKA STATE FAIR
RESERVE JR. CHAMPION BOAR

☆ Our herd ranks 9th Nationally in the production of Certified Meat Litters, the only Nebraska herd in the top 50.
☆ We build our reputation through continuous on-the-farm performance testing and back that information with Swine Testing Stations. The 1972 Spring pigs are being tested at Wymore, Clarkson and Macombe, Illinois.
