“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.”

- John Quincy Adams, Sixth President of the United States
Who is Dr. Connie Reimers-Hild?

Connie Reimers-Hild, Ph.D. (aka “Dr. Connie”) is one of the world’s leading experts in the areas of entrepreneurial leadership and innovation. Her award-winning work focuses on exploring and developing the entrepreneurial characteristics of individuals and leaders with a focus on innovation.

Dr. Connie is a faculty member at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) and founder of the coaching and consulting firm, Wild Innovation. She has written over 40 publications, 7 workbooks and a blog (askdrconnie.com) on the topics of entrepreneurial leadership and innovation. Dr. Connie uses the findings of her research as the basis for leadership and innovation coaching, which is designed to help individuals and organizations achieve sustainable success.

Programs & Services Offered by Dr. Connie:

Leadership Coaching: If you are looking to strengthen your inner leader, then this is for you! Dr. Connie’s leadership coaching begins with clients exploring their innermost thoughts and beliefs. This transformational approach to coaching helps people discover their true intentions on their personal path of leadership. After clients achieve inner-clarity, Dr. Connie provides clients with tools and structures designed to help them achieve success on their new path.

Innovation Coaching: Leadership is about making innovation happen. Innovation coaching is designed to help individuals and organizations create clarity around their definition and understanding of the innovation culture they are working to create. Innovation coaching is taken to the next level by creating customized innovation structures designed to deliver sustainable results.

Examples of programs include:

* Who are You at the Core? Discovering and Unleashing the Leader Within
* Entrepreneurial Leadership and Innovation: Keys to Personal and Organizational Success in the 21st Century

Her research has shown that personal fulfillment is one of the most important factors associated with success. Dr. Connie uses unique concepts of transformational and transformational coaching to help organizations integrate an innovation strategy into their culture with a focus on developing entrepreneurial leaders and employees.

What is Coaching?

The International Coach Federation (ICF) is the most recognized and largest global resource for coaches. On its web site (coachfederation.org), ICF defines coaching as, “partnering with clients in a thought-provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential.”

Dr. Connie's leadership and innovation coaching is designed to help clients achieve greater personal fulfillment through powerful conversations designed to get to the heart of change. After intense personal discovery, Dr. Connie works with clients to develop action steps designed for individual change and growth. It is a process that leads to self-discovery, personal development and amazing results.
Coaching is:

Client Driven: Clients (coachees) set the stage and determine the results they want to achieve. Dr. Connie provides focused time helping clients achieve their goals by asking powerful questions and building an accountability structure with exercises and assignments.

Customized: Each coachee is unique and has different ideas of what they want to achieve. Dr. Connie builds a customized coaching program for each coachee. Programs can be built for individuals or groups depending on the needs of the client.

Commitment: Coachees are expected to commit time to the sessions and to the homework. It is up to the coachee to make change happen. Dr. Connie is there to help them through the process.

Growth Oriented Action: Thinking about change will not create it. When signing up for coaching programs, coachees are committing to taking action and making change happen.

Coaching is not:

Therapy or Counseling: If you are seeking mental help or assistance, a coach is not the answer. Please seek the services of a licensed mental health professional.

Passive: The coachee is expected to take an active part in the coaching relationship. It is up to the coachee to set and accomplish their goals. They must be dedicated to the process and be willing to make changes that will help them move in a more positive direction.

Teams and Organizations

Dr. Connie is also available to coach teams and organizations looking to enhance their abilities to be more entrepreneurial and innovative. Please contact Dr. Connie to discuss your needs so she can customize a package for your team or organization.

Why Choose Dr. Connie?

Return on Investment (ROI): Dr. Connie believes in providing a return on your investment. Her coaching programs are designed to create positive, lasting change by focusing on ROI at the individual or organizational level.

Individual ROI: This is determined by the coachee. Initial coaching sessions are designed to establish the return you want on your investment into Dr. Connie’s coaching programs. We will work together to determine your personal ROI and then design a plan to achieve it.

Organizational ROI: This will be determined by the organization through communications with Dr. Connie. Organizations have unique cultures. Dr. Connie works with organizations to establish goals, metrics and milestones that reflect their unique path to sustainable success.

Value on Investment (VOI): In addition to ROI, Dr. Connie focuses on VOI. It is difficult to quantify all of the positive impacts associated with coaching. Dr. Connie has developed a qualitative approach to assessment, which she calls VOI. VOI is not established in advance; rather it is monitored throughout the coaching relationship. Dr. Connie’s qualitative approach to assessment will capture impacts and outcomes that naturally occur during the coaching process.

My research has shown that Personal Fulfillment is one of the most important factors associated with success.
