PROFESSIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT NETWORK IN HIGHER EDUCATION

MAY 1991

Dear POD colleagues:

Greetings from Montreal. Summer has finally come. The snow is gone (in almost all of Canada) and so are the students. Exams have been graded and now I have the time to catch up on all that work I have been putting off until it got quieter(!), tidying up my office, reading all those article I have put aside, and writing, including newsletters. This one is being written in Montreal, but will be mailed to you from Iowa by David Graf, POD's new Manager of Administrative Services.

CORE COMMITTEE NEWS

The Core Committee met in Washington D.C. on March 23 and 24, just before the American Association of Higher Education annual conference.

Outgoing Core Committee members: On your behalf as the new Executive Director of POD I want to thank those members who have just completed their term: Howard Altman, Beverley T. Amick, Loren Ekroth, Sandra Holmes, Glenn Ross Johnson, Ed Neal, and Sandra Tomlinson.

Past Executive Directors: I want to thank Del Wright and Rusty Wadsworth for their fine work as Executive Directors over the last two years.

New Core Committee Members: I also want to welcome the new members to the Core Committee: Beverley Black, Elizabeth F. Fideler, Peter Frederick, Marty Nemko, Diane vom Saal, and Marie Wunsch.

Manager of Administrative Services: At its fall meeting in Granlibakkan the Core Committee decided to restructure the administration of the organization by having an executive that included executive directors, past, current, and elect (Dan Wheeler is the Executive Director Elect) and to establish the position of "Manager of Administrative Services" to handle memberships, financial matters, and publications. David Graf of Iowa State University has been selected by the Core for this new position.

POD Sampler: Mary Deane Sorcinelli organized an excellent POD sponsored session at the conference on "Facilitating Difficult Dialogues About Diversity." The presenters included: Virgie Chattergy, Marie Wunsch, K.C. Morrison, Diane vom Saal, Debrah Jefferson, and Ellen Sarkasian.

1991 CONFERENCE: Our 1991 Conference will be held at the Lakeview Resort and Conference Center in Morgantown, WV. The pre-conference workshops will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 23 and 24. PLEASE NOTE THAT THE CONFERENCE BEGINS ON THURSDAY OCTOBER 24 AT 6:30. Register soon and bring a colleague. See the attached announcement.

Teaching Excellence: Now is the time to renew your subscription. See the attached flyer.

Getting POD publications into your library: Drop a note to your librarian and ask that some of our publications be ordered for your library.

Dialogue: In order to provide an avenue for members of POD to raise issues of concern to the general membership, I would like to try an experiment. I invite you to submit "short pieces" (space is obviously limited) to be published in this newsletter. The deadline for the next newsletter is July 31st.

1992 To Improve the Academy: Donald Wulff and Jody Nyquist have been selected as co-editors. The summer may be a good time to start nurturing that great idea into an article for the 1992 volume.

History of POD: Diane Morrison has received a grant from POD to document the history of POD.

Future Conference Sites: One very big challenge for POD is to find suitable sites for our annual conference. With our membership coming from all sections of the country I would hope that in your area there might just be the "perfect" site for us to hold our conference. If you think you know of a potential conference site please let me know, or contact one of the members of the conference site selection committee (Linc Fisch, Kay Herr, Joanne Kurfiss, Thomas Pasternak, or Larry Quinsland).
