FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Bob Wright, Terry DeVries, and Dr. Ron Seymour participated in the Hall County Ag Day, March 30, at Fonner Park in Grand Island, NE, sponsored by the Grand Island Chamber of Commerce. Over 650 area 4th grade students learned about insect diversity, the importance of pollinators, and got to handle live insects!

STUDENT NEWS

Amy Maile attended a Fundamentals of Crime Scene Investigation and Evidence Collection workshop in Elk River, MN, January 11-15, 2010, where she had the opportunity to perform numerous hands-on activities including collecting several DNA samples, casting footwear patterns in the snow, lifting 2D footwear patterns with gel, comparing different blood reagent chemicals on carpet, and testing several different chemicals for fingerprint analyses.

Rachael Fithian, (left in photo) and Christina Doehling, (right) Along with Dr. Gary Brewer (center) attended the 2010 February Forum held February 9, 2010, at the Holiday Inn in Lincoln. Rachael and Christina, both insect science majors, were honored at the annual event coordinated and hosted by the UNL Center for Science, Mathematics and Computer Education, which has been recognizing outstanding undergraduate women since 2005. Initially created as a symposium in 1977 by the Chapter of the Graduate Women in Science, the forum has grown into a campus tradition to honor outstanding junior and senior women majoring in scientific fields.

Check out the Bruner Club's Cafepress website at <http://www.cafepress.com/brunerclub> There are shirts, stickers, buttons, and magnets, all insect themed, of course! It's way cool!

Jess Jurzenski, Kate Kneeland, Erica Lindroth, Ken Miwa, Dori Porter, and Bamphitlhi (Banks) Tiroesele each received $100 from the Myron H. Swenk Memorial Fund to attend the North Central Branch ESA meeting in Louisville, KY, March 14-17, 2010.

NORTH CENTRAL BRANCH ESA STUDENT WINNERS

- Tim Husen – 1st place poster award for Ph.D. students.
- Jessica Jurzenski – 2nd place Ph.D. paper award
- Justin McMechan – 1st place poster award for M.S. students
- Dori Porter – 3rd place poster award for M.S. students
- Sean Whipple – 3rd place poster award for Ph.D. students

The Linnaean Team (Tim Husen, Jess Jurzenski, Erica Lindroth, Ken Miwa and alternate, Kate Kneeland) were runner-ups to Ohio State and will represent the NCB, along with Ohio State, at the national ESA meeting in San Diego, CA in December. In preliminary rounds, UNL's team defeated teams from University of Wisconsin-Madison and University of Illinois to make it to the finals. Their coaches (Drs. Ken Pruess and Bob Wright) are proud of the team's accomplishments.

FROM THE OFFICE

OPD opening East Campus office - The Office of Proposal Development opened a satellite office April 13 in 310E Ag Hall to help IANR faculty and other East Campus grant applicants more conveniently access the proposal development resources available at UNL. IANR faculty are encouraged to contact Nathan Meier, Sara Trickie, Terra Chapek, and Tisha Gilreath Mullen at 2-8058 for assistance with preparation of extramural grant applications. The office will be staffed from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays for the remainder of the spring semester. After that, OPD's East Campus office hours may be expanded if there is sufficient interest and demand.
