Elementary Teacher Education Program - Vital Statistics

Guy Trainin
University of Nebraska, Lincoln, gtrain2@unl.edu

Mary Masur
University of Nebraska-Lincoln, mmasur2@unl.edu

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/cehsgpirw
Part of the Elementary Education and Teaching Commons, and the Other Teacher Education and Professional Development Commons

http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/cehsgpirw/34
Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits before entering the Program.

A minimum ACT score of 20 is required to be admitted into the University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

Students entering the Program choose one of the following three possible endorsement paths:

- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education
- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education & Early Childhood
- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education & Special Education

The majority of UNL Elementary Education graduates stay in Nebraska and serve across its many communities.

Student Teacher Evaluations

- Student Teachers who met the Praxis Exam State Requirement: 96.4%
- Student Teachers who met the Achievement Centered Education Capstone Requirement: 99%
- Student Teachers who met the competency standards: 99.7%

Average ACT Scores of High School Graduates

- Elementary Education
- Special Education
- Educational Psychology
- Science and Math
- Humanities and Social Sciences

The Program

- Uses effective methods to manage the classroom
- Uses technology and media effectively in his/her teaching
- Creates a safe, student-centered environment in his/her classroom
- Well-prepared to teach in his/her content area
- An excellent teacher
- Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits before entering the Program.
- Upon completion of the Program, where are these first-year teachers placed?
- The first-year teacher that graduated from the Elementary Teachers Education Program at UNL...
- What are the Principals saying about the first-year teachers from UNL?
- Students entering the Program choose one of the following three possible endorsement paths:

- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education
- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education & Early Childhood
- Bachelor of Science in Education with Endorsement to Teach in Grades K-6 Elementary Education & Special Education

Student Teachers’ Average Praxis Scores

Scores range from 100 to 200. UNL’s average score is 10% higher than the national average.

- Urban: 179
- Rural: 175
- Suburban: 179
- Town: 175

What are the Principals saying about the first-year teachers from UNL?

- Below are the percentages of principals that agreed or strongly agreed with the following descriptions of the first-year teacher that graduated from the Elementary Teachers Education Program at UNL.
- Students Teachers' Average Praxis Scores

- The Program

- Average of students entering the Program
- Average of students completing the Program

Student Teacher Evaluations

- Student Teachers who met the Praxis Exam State Requirement: 96.4%
- Student Teachers who met the Achievement Centered Education Capstone Requirement: 99%
- Student Teachers who met the competency standards: 99.7%

Average ACT Scores of High School Graduates

- Elementary Education
- Special Education
- Educational Psychology
- Science and Math
- Humanities and Social Sciences

The Program

- Uses effective methods to manage the classroom
- Uses technology and media effectively in his/her teaching
- Creates a safe, student-centered environment in his/her classroom
- Well-prepared to teach in his/her content area
- An excellent teacher
- Students must complete a minimum of 30 credits before entering the Program.
- Upon completion of the Program, where are these first-year teachers placed?
- The first-year teacher that graduated from the Elementary Teachers Education Program at UNL...
- What are the Principals saying about the first-year teachers from UNL?

Average of students entering the Program: 2.50 GPA
Average of students completing the Program: 3.31 GPA
Average ACT Scores of High School Graduates: 21.0, 21.7, 24.1