Set the Example! That is my theme for this year and I hope if you are not already on board, you will be compelled to become an active member, to have your concerns heard, to share in our learning experiences, and above all be proud to be a member of UNOPA.

I was able to participate in the National Association of Educational Office Professionals conference held in Bloomington, Minnesota, July 20 – 24, 2009. What an exciting week! The sessions that I attended were fantastic, including the presenters. Many of you may not know that I have problems keeping awake during meetings, in fact many of my co-workers will attest to that statement. But I was like another person sitting at the edge of my chair trying to absorb everything being presented.

In addition to the five general sessions that I attended Wednesday through Friday, I was also able to attend institute classes and a session on Monday and Tuesday. The keynote speaker for the fifth general session was Lieutenant Wyatt Bienfang. He is a School Resource Officer at Glencoe-Silver Lake School District, who wears many hats: family man, policeman, educator, coach, and a cancer survivor. His presentation helped me to confirm my choice for the 50/50 recipient. I hope you are able to attend our first general business meeting in September to hear more during my announcement.

UNOPA Tour Quilt Center at Summer Social

The UNOPA Summer Social was held on Tuesday, June 23, 2009. Members were treated to a tour of the International Quilt Studies & Museum. The quilts on display were truly a work of art. The exhibits we saw were the “Quilt Japan: Selections from the 9th Quilt Nihon Exhibition” and “American Quilts in Modern Age, 1870-1940.” The color, design and creativity that went into making the quilts in the “Quilt Japan” exhibit were artistically outstanding. The “American Quilts in the Modern Age, 1870-1940” [this is the modern age??] had several different styles of quilts – pieced block, crazy style and one-of-a-kind from different decades. It was interesting to hear about the fabric and the different ways they were stitched – hand and machine.

The tour was very fascinating, learning about the background of the quilts displayed.

UNOPA Mission Statement: Education is the birthright of every person. We, as members of the University of Nebraska Office Professionals Association, pledge ourselves to safeguard that right. We acknowledge the unique role of educational office professionals and the importance of their contributions to the university and the community. The purpose of UNOPA is to provide professional growth and promote high professional standards for educational office professionals with the University of Nebraska, as partners, upholding the quality of service to the university educational systems and community.
Michele Strickler the board voted to have the fund given to a charity. That first year the board choose the charity, the Emergency Loan Fund. Since that time we have given to numerous charities. In 1997 it was decided that the President would pick the charity as her project for the year.

What do the National Association Educational Office Professional Meeting, the Nebraska Educational Office Professionals Association Meeting, The Central Area Meetings, and the UNOPA General Meeting all have in common besides the obvious? The 50/50 fund raising. This fund raising is where the pot is split two different ways. You buy a ticket and have a chance to win 50% of the amount collected. Each ticket costs $1.00 or you can get a bargain, for $5.00 you get six tickets. In September 1989 UNOPA established the 50/50 fund. That year Shirley Horstman was UNOPA’s Treasurer and Jan Harris was the President. In the first year 50% of the fund went into the Treasury for operating.

In 1996-97 under President Marcia Rowley the fund was given to the Food Bank. In 1997-98 the charity was Camp Kataki and the PSP Fund. In 1998-99 the charity was Cedar’s Home for Children. In 1999-2000 the charity was Friendship Home. In 2000-2001 the charity was Lincoln Literary Council. In 2001-2002 the charity was Lincoln Medical Education Foundation (LMEF). In 2002-03 the charity was Habitat for Humanity and City Impact Fund. In 2003-2004 the charity was Veterans Memorial Gardens. In 2004-2005 the charity was Spinoza Bears. In 2005-2006 the charity was Courage, Hope, Love. In 2006-2007 the charity was Centre Point. In 2007-2008 the charity was Habitat for Humanity and City Impact Fund. In 2008-2009 the charity was Veterans Memorial Gardens.

So as you can see, not only do you have a chance to win but also donate to a good cause.

National Conference Highlights

Fourteen members of UNOPA attended the National Association of Educational Office Professionals Annual Conference in Bloomington, Minnesota from July 20-24th. The theme for the conference was “Explore the Facets of NAEOP.”

This year the NAEOP celebrated its 75th Anniversary. The conference opened on Tuesday night with the traditional flag ceremony followed by the keynote address given by Rick J. Kaufman, one of the first responders to the Columbine shootings. The conference ended with a keynote address by Lieutenant Wyatt Bienfang, a police officer and a school teacher.

Awards are always a highlight of the conference and were given at a general session on Thursday afternoon.

Here are some results:
- UNOPA NOTES (Betty Jacobs, editor) received 3rd place in the Local Newsletter Category 2.
- UNOPA received 3rd place in the Louise Henderson Nelson Award, Local Category, which is a 5-year historical award on events, service and recognition.
- Diane Wasser was elected to the PSP Committee.
- NEOPA received 3rd place in the State Division of the Louise Henderson Nelson Award.
- Nebraska also received 1st place in Membership increases.
- Nebraska received 3rd in the 75th State Anniversary Doll.

Central Area to host National Conference in 2010

Nebraska is one of five Central Area states that will be hosting the 2010 NAEOP Annual Conference in Kansas City in July.

Mary Guest and Gretchen Walker are Nebraska Co-Chairs for our part in the conference.

Nebraska will be responsible for hosting the registration table on July 4, the hospitality room on July 5 with Kansas and the Professional Standards Banquet on July 7.

Mary and Gretchen are asking for help from all of the Nebraska Affiliates.

If you would be willing to help out, please contact Mary Guest (mguest2@unl.edu) or Gretchen Walker (gwalker1@unl.edu).

This would be a great opportunity to attend a National Conference if you haven’t done so.
