The Certified Educational Office Employee (CEOE) distinction may be applied for after completing requirements for certain level certificates. Two members achieved PSP/CEOE certification in 2004-05. Carol B. noted she was honored to install the officers. Candles were used to represent the officers.
being installed. Becky’s theme for the 2005-06 year is “Keep the Candle Burning.” Candles have a small flame that illuminates a whole area. Candle wicks illuminate; candle wax sustains the light. Each member is the wax (or glue) making up UNOPA. The different talents of each member are needed to keep UNOPA going. The meeting was adjourned at 1:00.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Egger, Recording Secretary
President Becky Hastings called the meeting to order at 12:00 noon with a welcome. New members and guests were recognized.

OFFICERS REPORTS
President, Becky Hastings

The first item of business was to approve the May 2005 general meeting minutes which were published in the August issue of UNOPA Notes. After asking for any corrections, recording secretary, Valerie Egger, noted two changes:
1) The spelling of Shirley Horstman’s name was corrected under Professional Growth/PSP
2) Also under Professional Growth/PSP, the following change will be made:
Was: “Mary [Guest] and Gretchen [Walker] will also be recognized at the upcoming national convention which they may choose to attend.”
Correction: “Mary and Gretchen will be recognized at any future national convention that they choose to attend.”

Becky noted an additional correction regarding the 2006 NEOPA conference that UNOPA will be hosting: that conference will be the 2006 SPRING conference.

Becky stated that the minutes would stand approved as corrected.

Treasurer, Gretchen Walker
Gretchen reported that the beginning checking balance on July 1, 2005 was $2,933.39. Income was $233.34; expenses $624.28. This leaves an ending checking balance August 31, 2005 of $2,542.45. The cost object balance is -$405.67. The CD balance is $3,053.42

Corresponding Secretary, Marlene Pyatt
Becky noted that Marlene is the one who sends cards to UNOPA members. Marlene is now the one who needs a card sent to her as she has a broken leg. Becky will take care of sending a card.

STANDING REPORTS
Awards, Jan Edwards
Jan noted that the Boss of the Year award will be presented at the November 8 general meeting. Guidelines regarding who is eligible and how to make a nomination are on the UNOPA Web site. Nominations are due October 10.

Due to unexpected changes that are placing great demands on her time and energy, Jan feels she can no longer give the Awards Committee the time it needs and is looking for a volunteer to step forward and assume the role of director of the Awards Committee. If you are interested or can make a recommendation, please contact Jan or Becky Hastings.
Bradley Munn Professional Growth Fund, Sandy Watmore
One of UNOPA’s prime objectives is to promote professional development for its members. These opportunities frequently result in personal expenses (e.g. registration fees, lodging, class fees and books, PSP certification fees). If you are a member of UNOPA and have not been reimbursed by the Bradley Munn Professional Growth Fund in the past two years, you can apply for reimbursement of up to $100. Information for applying for a reimbursement is on the UNOPA Web site and/or reimbursement forms are available by contacting Sandy. The next deadline is October 15.

Along those lines, the foundation that reimbursements are paid from is in constant need of replenishment. One way UNOPA members can contribute is through an automatic payroll deduction. A commonly deducted amount is $.50 per bi-weekly pay period. If you are interested in supporting the fund, contribution forms are available by contacting Sandy.

Employee Concerns, Lola Young
Pat Hust and Tonda Humphress are co-directors of the Employee Concerns Committee and invited Lola Young to speak about NU Fringe Benefits.

Lola is on the U-Wide Fringe Benefits committee. NU President J. B. Milliken has asked that the committee meet more frequently as he is interested in the opinions and feedback from faculty and staff. They will meet later this week. Please feel free to contact Lola about any concerns you have and she will be happy to submit items for the agenda. Lola explained that the University of Nebraska system is self-insured. All insurance premiums are deposited into a trust fund from which claims are paid. Blue Cross is paid to administer the fund. This has proven to be a very cost effective method of providing insurance. She also noted that aging Baby Boomers will tax the current system as health costs, particularly prescriptions, are rapidly rising.

Outreach, Mari Greer
Mari reported on the summer social. It was held July 28, 2005 at Champions Fun Center with 29 members registering. A good time was had by all.

Mari and her committee heard many members say they could not get off work for a daytime event, so the Champion’s social was scheduled in the evening. Registrations of $8.00 each totaled $232.00. Expenses totaled $388.11 and consisted of meals at $289.71 and miniature golf at $98.40. The balance of $156.11 will be paid from the UNOPA general fund.

Mentoring, Mary Guest and Beth Krohn, co-directors
Beth introduced Dr. Tom Workman from Student Involvement who spoke about the upcoming UNOPA Mentoring brownbag series.

Dr. Workman noted that mentoring should be an informal sharing of information and wisdom. Frequently we have let it become to rigid and formal. As an example, we each probably experienced some informal mentoring at our tables during the luncheon, taking away some nugget of information that we did not come with.
The mentoring brownbag sessions will provide an informal opportunity to share UNL wisdom while learning about different services and departments on campus. He invited everyone to attend the kick-off brownbag Tuesday, September 27, noon – 1:00, at the Nebraska Union on City Campus. Panelists will be: Deb Mullen, Vicki Highstreet, Nancy Myers, and Tom Workman.

Membership, Amy Stewart

Amy reported that so far she had received 89 membership fees (renewals and new). She is designing a system whereby members will receive an email notifying them that their membership fee has been received. However, she is experiencing some frustrations with the Listserv. Please be patient as the problems are resolved.

NAEOP/NEOPA Coordinator, Carol Bom

NEOPA is partnering with the YWCA in conducting a clothing drive to assist low-income women who don’t have the clothing they need for interviews, etc. as they try to enter or re-enter the workforce. The drive begins September 1 and ends with the October 15 Fall NEOPA Workshop in Omaha. Contact Carol if you are interested in donating and would like to arrange for a pick-up.

NEOPA is sponsoring a fall workshop near Omaha. This is a workshop, not a conference, and will include tips and tricks about Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel as well as a sentence savvy workshop with grammar and writing tips. The cost is modest, $35 for NEOPA members (non-members $50). The cost includes a continental breakfast and lunch.

Carol also announced that she would be leaving UNL in the very near future. Best wishes to you on your new venture, Carol.

OLD BUSINESS

As this is the first meeting of the 2005-06 year, there is no old business.

NEW BUSINESS

Becky has a correction to the President’s Corner which appeared in the August UNOPA Notes: Carol Bom will be installed as 2006 president [not president-elect as reported] of NEOPA at the spring NEOPA conference.

The next deadline for UNOPA Notes is Thursday, September 15. Please get your information to Rhonda Zugmier by this date. If you can’t have it to her by then, contact her directly to make other arrangements.

A fund has been set up through NAEOP for those NAEOP members affected by Hurricane Katrina. If you want to contribute but didn’t have a chance to do so today, you may send contributions to Gretchen Walker. She will be accepting contributions until the 16th of September. More information can be found on the NAEOP website.
Sandy Watmore received the Olive T. Ritchie Educational Office Professional of the Year award at the National Conference in Tucson, Arizona this past July. Sandy was presented with a pearl pendant on a gold chain and a pair of pearl earrings from UNOPA and NEOPA in Tucson. President Hastings read a Thank You note received from Sandy to the Membership.

Other awards received at the National Conference in Tucson this past July were:

1) UNOPA Notes received the Rachel Maynard Award for Excellence in Communication, First Place–Local Newsletter Category 2. Barbara L’Heureux was the 2004-05 editor.
2) Diane Wasser is the Communications Technology director and accepted the award for second place for the UNOPA Web site at the national conference.
3) NEOPA NEON – newsletter for the state organization received third place. The editor was Carol Bom.

Becky explained that there are problems filling the time slots for individuals to work the football parking lot. There have been some no-shows, slots not filled, husbands working one and two shifts, and UNOPA members working two and three shifts. One member even worked a shift alone. So, a few people brainstormed and came up with the following idea of trying to get people to sign up to work. For each two-hour shift any individual works at the parking lot (members and non-members), their name will be put in for a drawing to be held in December. The prize will be a $50.00 gift card to Wal-Mart. Those who worked the first two games would have their name put into the drawing also. While some members felt they could work fine alone, the contract that UNOPA signs stipulates that a minimum of two people must be working at all time for security purposes. Several members came forward and stated how much fun they have working the parking lot and encouraged others to give it a try.

UNOPA is the last organization managing a parking lot for football games. UNL Parking would like to have it back. If we give it up, we won’t get it back. Last year’s proceeds netted UNOPA over $4,000. UNOPA receives $4.00 out of every $10.00 parking fee. These funds cannot easily be replaced by other means such as raffles and pie sales.

Becky introduced Roshan Pajnigar, Director of Compensation and Employment, UNL Human Resources, who spoke briefly about NU Values. Roshen explained that NU Values is a new compensation system that is being put into effect now. IANR will be completely moved to NU Values by October 1, 2005. Others will follow very soon after. NU Values will give office/service positions a broad band of salary ranges. Current working titles will be retained. Pay will not decrease. If need be, pay may increase to bring it in line with like positions. When applying for positions on campus, there may be a pay range offered, such as $12.00-$14.00. There will no longer be an automatic 10% increase when current UNL employees assume a new position in a higher pay scale. Applicants need to take responsibility for negotiating their salary. More information is available on the NU Values Web page.

Hospitality, Pat DeStefano and Susan Thomas
The committee decorated in a beach theme. The recipient for the 50/50 drawing was Mary Klucas. Beach towel centerpieces were given to the one person at each table who had a blue mint. Beach-themed gift bags were given to those holding a unique playing card (e.g. Queen of clubs). The cards were handed out earlier when members first arrived.

Program, Donelle Moormeier
President elect, Donelle Moormeier, introduced the speaker, Diane Sullivan. Diane is a long time UNL employee who works for INTSORMIL and also owns a small business, The Organization Station. Diane showed us how, and why, our homes and offices should be better organized and shared a few tips with everyone. A few bits of her wisdom:

- “Clutter is a deferred decision.” How true!
- Mirror hard files, computer files and email files so items of important are saved in the same folders regardless of location.
- Ask, “Where can I find it?” Not, “Where can I file it.”

Much to everyone’s regret, time was running short and Diane gave a briefer presentation than planned. We all agreed we could benefit from a lengthier presentation if there would be a future opportunity.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:05.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Egger
CALL TO ORDER: President Becky Hastings welcomed everyone at 11:57. She recognized those members who were new since the September general meeting as well as guests.

OFFICERS’ REPORTS
Recording Secretary: Becky Hastings noted that the minutes from the September general meeting needed to be approved and asked for any corrections or amendments. As none were offered, the minutes stand approved as printed in the October UNOPA Notes.

Corresponding Secretary: Marlene Pyatt
Marlene announced that donations to the Holiday Giving Tree would once again go to St. Monica’s and Fresh Start Home. Both were thrilled with UNOPA’s response to their needs last year and are excited to be part of our holiday giving once again. Marlene discussed the goals and mission of each. As part of St. Monica’s is moving to a new building, they will especially need kitchen items. Fresh Start will provide Marlene with some names of women using their services and their specific needs. These names will be on the Giving Tree at the November general meeting.

Treasurer: Gretchen Walker
Gretchen noted that copies of the 2005-06 budget were on the table and that the budget needs to be approved. She requested that members take a few minutes to look over the budget and then opened up the floor for questions. One member asked why the Bradley Munn Professional Development Funds was not included in the budget. Sandy Watmore replied that what is used by the funds depends on the monies coming in to the fund, and that she would discuss it further in her report. Barb Carley moved that the 2005-06 be approved as printed. Tricia Liedle seconded the motion. Motion carried.

The beginning checking balance on September 1, 2005 was $2542.45. Income was $1230.65 and expenses were $ 333.09. That leaves the ending checking balance at $3,440.01 with -$896.06 in the cost object. The CD balance is $3053.42

STANDING COMMITTEES

Awards, Jan Edwards
Five nominations have been received for the Boss of the Year Award. The award will be presented at the November 8, 2005 general meeting to be held at the Champion’s Club. The nominations will go the judges this week. Jan encouraged all members to invite their bosses to the luncheon. Not only could you have an enjoyable lunch with your boss, but the experience might help them get a better understanding of UNOPA.
Bradley Munn Professional Growth Funds, Sandy Watmore
The next deadline for applying for professional growth reimbursements is Saturday, October 15. Sandy has the applications with her. Sandy adds to the fund in a variety of ways. One way that UNOPA members can add to the fund is through payroll deductions. Even $.25 per pay check can make a difference. If interested, contact Sandy for the payroll deduction form. To also help increase the fund, there will be a mini-raffle for a stained-glass sun catcher made of amber and brown glass. The sun catcher was donated by UNOPA member Cathy Leazer. Sandy will have more information on the raffle in the near future.

Spring NEOPA Conference: Diane Wasser and Sandy Watmore
Diane and Sandy reminded members that UNOPA will sponsor the Spring Nebraska Educational Office Professionals Association (NEOPA) Conference which will be held March 30-April 1, 2006. They invited members to help out by serving on a conference committee (e.g. program, hospitality, registration). The committees will be organized soon. The conference theme is: Daffodils, Daisies and Dandelions. It will explore the differences and similarities between educational office professionals across the state.

Employee Concerns: Judy Anderson
The Employee Concerns Committee felt it would be helpful for UNOPA members to hear from individual committee members about their roles as members of various campus employee concerns committees. Members of these campus committees are also members of the UNOPA Employee Concerns Committee.

Today, Judy Anderson is the first member of the UNOPA Employee Concerns Committee to speak to the UNOPA membership. Judy is a member of the UNL Parking Appeals Committee. The committee meets monthly to review appeals and is comprised of three members each from: UNOPA, UAAD, and the Faculty Senate. If you dispute a parking ticket, your appeal goes to the Parking Appeals Committee. It is more effective if you personally show-up to discuss your appeal rather than simply relying on a written appeal. They average twenty appeals a month for faculty and staff. Student appeals are heard by a student parking appeals committee. The other UNOPA members on the Parking Appeals Committee are: Deb Hendricks and Linda Thelen.

Outreach: Mari Greer
The Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk will be October 30. It begins at 1:00 with registration at 12:00. Pre-registration is not necessary. Brochures are on the tables if you are interested in participating. There is no minimum contribution. Right now, about ten people are signed up for the UNL team. Contact Mari for further details or to sign up. Mari also has t-shirts for $12 each. One member also noted that Office Depot carries Making Strides sticky notes.

UNOPA Notes, Becky Hastings
Becky spoke on behalf of Rhonda Zugmier reminding everyone that the next deadline for
OLD BUSINESS
Becky Hastings gave us a brief football parking update. As discussed at the September general meeting, the names of parking lot volunteers will be added to a drawing for a $50 Wal-Mart gift certificate. Karen Randall contacted Becky after the September general meeting to let her know that Wal-Mart would possibly donate the gift card to UNOPA. The required forms have been filled out requesting the donation of a gift card and will be submitted to Wal-Mart. Volunteers are still needed for the October 29 and November 12 games. Please see the co-chairs for those days, or sign-up as you leave today. Co-chairs are: October 29, Sandy Watmore and Gretchen Walker; November 12, Donelle Moormeier and Valerie Egger.

This year’s 50/50 contributions will be donated to Camp COHOLO which stands for Courage, Hope and Love. The camp is for children diagnosed with cancer. It is an opportunity for them to spend a week with children in similar situations in a camp environment. To help UNOPA members better understand what this camp is all about, Becky read a letter from her colleague, John Lohmeier, about his daughter’s experience with leukemia and Camp COHOLO. In brief, John’s daughter Tiffany was three years old when she was diagnosed with acute lymphoblast leukemia. During her years of treatment, she attended Camp COHOLO from age five through seventeen. During the one-week camp experience, she and other children were “normal” kids. They smiled and laughed—something that was rare during their normal routines. They were supported at camp by a host of health care providers operating a well organized system for dispensing on-going treatments and medications. One of the difficulties of returning to camp each year was knowing that there would be faces missing from the prior year. Tiffany was one of the more fortunate participants of Camp COHOLO. She is now a healthy, married, very involved, 21-year old who is also a Camp COHOLO counselor.

NEW BUSINESS
UNOPA members are invited to attend a UAAD professional development program on Wednesday, Oct. 12, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. in the East Campus Union. As an update to the email she sent out earlier, Becky explained that UNOPA members can attend for free. The program, Proactive with Self, looks at ways to become more proactive in the workplace. It will be led by Suzanne Drew, director of Staff Development.

Becky received a thank-you card from Donna McCarthy for the sympathy card received from UNOPA after the passing of Tom Miner Holland.

Hospitality: Pat DeStefano and Susan Thomas
Susan briefly reminded members that late meeting registrations make it very difficult to plan the luncheon meeting. For the October meeting, 40% of the registrations were received late.

The 50/50 drawing collected $57.00. Half of that amount, $28.50 was won by Karen Shriner. The lovely wine-theme centerpieces were given to the first person at each table who found nail clippers. (If only I had brought my purse!)
Door prizes donated by today’s speaker, Jim Ballard of James Arthur Vineyards, were won by JoAnn Barry, Belva Harris (a guest) and Jan Sammet. Door prizes provided by the Hospitality Committee were won by Gretchen Walker, Lois Erickson, Marcy Tintera, Linda Thelen and Sandy Jones. Congratulations, ladies!

PROGRAM:
Donelle Moormeier introduced today’s speaker, Jim Ballard, from James Arthur Vineyards. Jim gave us some history of James Arthur Vineyards (e.g., how it came to be, opened in September 1997, size of vineyard), discussed wine-making in Nebraska, some of the caretaking involved with grapevines (e.g., pruning, canopy management), and the grape varieties that grow best in Nebraska’s weather. His very interesting presentation was followed by time for questions and answers.

Following Jim Ballard’s presentation, Judy Anderson quickly mentioned that she had gifts for NEOPA members. Please see her to pick up yours.

Becky Hastings pointed out the flyers on the tables announcing a craft/gift boutique table that would be at the November and December general meetings. This is sponsored by the PSP Committee as a fund raiser.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:05.

The next meeting will be November 8, 2005

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Egger

Names of the volunteers who helped with the football parking lot this fall were added to a drawing for a $50 giftcard to Wal-Mart. Their name was added once for each 2-hour shift worked. The winning name drawn was Tonya Wasser. Becky thanked all the volunteers for their help.

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Awards. Jan Edwards
Becky reported for Jan Edwards. Upcoming UNOPA awards are the Floyd S. Oldt Silver Pen and the Outstanding Staff awards which will be presented at the February general meeting. The nomination deadline is January 13. Visit the UNOPA Website for more details.

Employee Concerns. Co-chairs Pat Hust & Tonda Humphress
On behalf of Pat and Tonda, Becky introduced Carol Nau who gave a brief overview of the Emergency Loan Fund Advisory Committee. Carol interacts with the committee and loan fund as part of her responsibilities working at the Employee Assistance Program, but is not an actual member of the Advisory Committee.

The Emergency Loan Fund is available to UNL non-probationary employees in financial crisis who have exhausted all other means of obtaining emergency financial assistance. The Emergency Loan Fund is administered through the UNL Employee Assistance Program. Loans have been used for utilities, mortgage payments, repairs, rent and other expenses. Since being established in 1994 with a beginning balance of $6000, the Emergency Loan Fund has provided seventy-eight loans. Loans approved in 2005 totaled $4,502.60. Once a loan application is submitted to and screened by the Employee Assistance Program, the Employee Emergency Fund Advisory Committee approves or denies the application. Carol thanked the UNOPA members who are on the Advisory Committee for their work.

Professional Growth. Judy Anderson
Becky reported for Judy that the UNOPA workshop, Value It, Organize It, Pack It, was held Thursday, December 1 and was well attended by about fifty people. NU Values was explained by Roshan Pajnigar, Diane Sullivan described different ways of organizing our homes and offices, and Christine Cary demonstrated the art of packing a suitcase. Becky thanked the presenters. Refreshments were also a hit!

UNOPA Notes. Rhonda Zugmier
Becky announced that the deadline for the January issue of UNOPA Notes is December 15th. Please give your information to Rhonda Zugmier.
Hospitality. Pat DeStefano and Susan Thomas
Susan announced that $67 was collected for the 50/50 drawing [which is raising funds to support Camp COHOLO]. The winner of drawing was Jane Schneider who won $33.50.

We each received an office angel hand-made by the committee members. Members with specially designed angels also received a door prize.

In addition, we were all very entertained by Susan’s reading of the left/right story which ultimately led to one person at each table winning the gift-bag centerpiece.

Program. Donelle Moormeier
Becky turned the program over to Donelle Moormeier, president elect, who introduced the program for the day: A Plains Fiddle Style, with David Fowler and Carolyn Johnsen. Donelle explained that the Nebraska Humanities Council (NHC) provides major funding for this program. Some information on the Humanities Council was on our tables.

David and Carolyn (husband and wife) played a delightful mix of traditional and contemporary tunes using fiddle, drum and piano. This was a shortened version of their 50-minute program which gave us time for a few questions.

Besides being wonderfully entertained, we learned a few things. David and Carolyn will play for any non-profit with most of the cost picked up by the Humanities Council. The difference between a violin and a fiddle is the music, not the instrument. David explained that classical violin music is played by reading music. Fiddling, however, is done mostly by ear which lends itself to variations among performers. The violin family has four main instruments ranging from small to large: violin, viola, violincello and double bass. Carolyn used a hand-held Irish drum which was open on the back side. For some selections, she muted the sound by putting her hand or fingers against the back on the drum.

Corresponding Secretary. Marlene Pyatt
Marlene reminded people that tomorrow, December 14, is the absolute last day that she can accept gifts for St. Monica’s and for the Fresh Start Home Giving Tree as they will be delivered this week. Please get your donation over to Marlene at 401 Administration Building promptly.

PROGRAM

Russell introduced the speaker J. B. Milliken, president of the University Nebraska.

A few highlights:

- While one of President Milliken’s roles is that of chief spokesperson for the University of Nebraska, he reminded us that NU staff are also important advocates for the university. We are highly visible, often the first point-of-contact, and have many contacts with the UN constituency. People often form their opinions of the University based on their interactions with university staff, so it is important that we all be university advocates and celebrate the University of Nebraska.

- Dr. Milliken has been involved in developing a strategic framework for the University that will guide future planning. The six overarching goals of the Strategic Planning Framework can be found at www.nebraska.edu. While he discussed all six goals, of particular interest to Dr. Milliken is the first goal: “The University of Nebraska will provide the opportunity for Nebraskans to enjoy a better life through access to high quality, affordable undergraduate, graduate and professional education.” As part of that goal, President Milliken is especially interested increasing in Nebraskans’ participation in higher education by increasing access to, and affordability of, education.

- He discussed budget items such as deficits resulting from unexpected costs (e.g., the significant rise in utility costs), and the cost of maintaining state buildings, 70% of which are owned by the University of Nebraska.

Before adjourning at 1:00, UAAD raffled off a bicycle as a fund raiser for the People's City Mission, and also gave away the attractive, red “N” coffee mugs that decorated our tables.

Respectfully submitted,

Valerie Egger

The Commission was created to enhance the status of women at UNL by serving as advisers to the chancellor. The Commission has three councils: faculty, staff and student. The staff council is 50% office/service and 50% managerial/professional. Commission members serve a three-year term. After receiving recommendations from organizations such as UNOPA, the chancellor then appoints members to the Commission. The councils meet monthly; twice a semester they meet with the chancellor. Currently new members are needed for the council. You can nominate someone or nominate yourself to serve on the Commission. See the Commission’s Web site for details, http://www.unl.edu/ccsw/

One–by–one nominations were opened up for president-elect, recording secretary, corresponding secretary and treasurer. After hearing no further nominations for any of the offices, one–by–one the nominations were declared closed.

Program, Donelle Moormeier
Program Chair Donelle Moormeier introduced Carolyn Ducey, curator with the International Quilt Study Center (IQSC) at UNL.

Carolyn announced that the IQSC will soon break ground for a new building at 33rd and Holdrege Streets in Lincoln. The new building will have room for 4,000 quilts! The IQSC was established in 1997 with a single donation of about 950 quilts. The collection has quickly grown to around 1,900 quilts making it the largest collection in the world. The IQSC goals include:

- Preservation and conservation of quilts;
- Exhibition of quilts; and
- Education.

To reduce damage to the textiles, quilts are refolded about every two years. They are never washed but are vacuumed. Any stained items are sent away for professional treatment. Exhibitions range from the Nebraska State Historical Society right, here in Lincoln, to statewide and international exhibits. The Center recently concluded an exhibition of Amish quilts in South Korea. Whenever the quilts travel, one the Center’s staff accompanies the quilts to ensure they are handled and displayed correctly. The IQSC has a graduate program in quilt studies in addition to public education programs (such as today’s presentation).

Carolyn discussed the Center’s efforts to track down the original quilter and/or family members, and to gather historical information about the quilts. She also showed and discussed several quilt motifs, quilt culture, and the art of quilting. Lunch participants let out an audible gasp as Carolyn described the fine detail used by Amish women in their quilts—18 – 20 hand stitches per inch!

Unfortunately, work beckoned us all to return leaving many wanting to hear still more.

In closing, Becky thanked Carolyn for her fascinating presentation. She also announced that the UNOPA banner hanging from the speaker’s podium was the new banner which reflected UNOPA’s change from the University Office Personnel Association to the University Office Professionals Association. Sandy Watmore was recognized for her work in having the new banner designed.

The next general meeting will be April 11, 2006, at the East Campus Union. This will be the Past Presidents Recognition and Rose Frolik Award Luncheon. In addition, UNOPA members who retired in the past year will also be recognized.

The 50/50 drawing netted $68. Rhonda Zugmier won $34 and $34 will be donated to Camp COHOLO. Door prizes and table centerpieces were in a “pamper yourself” theme. Door prize winners were Cary Jackson, JoAnn Barry, and Karen Shriner. We were all entertained by the reading of the Mr. and Mrs. Right Easter story which ultimately lead to one person at each table winning a table centerpiece.

Recognition of Past Presidents and Retirees, Marlene Pyatt
Marlene recognized six UNOPA retirees and UNOPA’s past presidents. Their names were listed on the program. She also shared notes from a few past presidents who were unable to attend. Pictures were taken as well.

Program, Donelle Moormeier
Donelle introduced the speaker, Pat Shorney, with the Red Hat Society which is a social organization for women over 50. April is Red Hat Society Month and the Society will hold a regional convention next week in Ontario, Canada. Pat shared some history of the society which is a relatively new association. Members are readily noticed by the red hats on their heads and purple on their shoulders. There is now a Pink Hat Society for women under 50.

Rose Frolik Award, Becky Hastings
The Rose Frolik Award is an annual award that was established in 1988 to recognize a UNOPA member demonstrating the attributes of UNOPA’s founder and first president, Rose Frolik. Rose espouses the philosophy that how you do your work may be a lot more important than what you do. Recipients of this award will receive a personalized plaque commemorating their recognition, a one year membership to UNOPA and a $300 cash award.

The three judges were from outside of UNL: Maggie McPherson, personnel training coordinator at Wal-Mart; Jason Thacker, pastor for Country Bible Church in Bennet; and Dick Janda, news anchor for Channel 8 Eyewitness News. Jason and Dick joined us for the luncheon and award presentation, and Becky asked that they stand and be recognized.

Rose has designated Sandy Lineberry, from the UNL Department of the Nebraska Forest Service, to serve as her “official” spokesperson. Becky introduced Sandy and turned the award program over to her.

Sandy explained the requirements for earning this prestigious award. Nominees must have at least five years of active membership in UNOPA and are rated on their leadership characteristics, professional growth characteristics and quest for personal growth, involvement in UNOPA, and personal characteristics. As stated earlier, Rose Frolik feels that how you do your work may be a lot more important than what you do.

Sandy announced the two nominees and recognized them with certificates of nomination: Dora Dill from the Agricultural Research Division, and Jeanne Andelt from the Nebraska Forest Service. The 2006 winner of the Rose Frolik Award was Dora Dill. Congratulations, Dora!

Becky reminded everyone that the next general meeting will be May 9, 2006. This meeting will include the installation of the 2006-2007 officers and will be held on City Campus at the Kauffman Academic Residential Center. The meeting was closed at 12:57 p.m.
