As we begin the new year for UNOPA, we give thanks for past leadership and participation of members. We look forward to a year of good communication, fellowship, learning and ACTION.

As I see it, our first task is to interest more eligible people to unite with us. Not for the glory of UNOPA or sheer numbers, but as a more accurate representation of office personnel.

Second, we would hope that all members will become as active as their time and talents permit. I'm sure there is much latent ability that should be working for UNOPA. Please, please volunteer your services - either as general willingness to carry your share of the responsibilities of the association or, preferably, on a specific committee. If you have an idea for a program, a speaker, or whatever, call one of the officers and get it on record. I don't guarantee all suggestions will be followed, but I do pledge you that every suggestion will be explored.

There is one thing we aren't very happy to think about, but we must face the fact that UNOPA is in dire financial straits. This year's budget was trimmed to the very bone and still it exceeds anticipated revenue. Were it not for proceeds from last year's Bazaar we would really be in the red. Therefore a decision needs to be made by the membership - either dues must be increased to meet the budget requirements or another source of income must be found. We urgently solicit your opinion on this subject.

Our meetings this year will be the third Wednesday of the month, and, except for the November meeting, all will be held in the Nebraska Union. We look forward to seeing all of you at the first meeting on September 20th.

Mollie Tintera
President
UNOPA PICNIC

August 22, 1972, was a cloudy, rainy day. August 23, 1972, dawned the same way. This weather certainly was not making fourteen souls very happy, for the evening of August 23rd was scheduled as the night for the UNOPA Picnic. By noon, however, the raindrops were fewer and with a little imagination you could see patches of blue sky. By 6:00 p.m. the sky was clear and there was sunshine once again, and the temperature was perfect.

The people who arrived early had the pleasure of seeing the pictures that Audrey Schardt took while on her trip to the west coast. The pictures were great and I am sure that Audrey will never forget her experiences on that trip. Mollie Tintera brought the food from Kings. We had fried chicken, baked beans, cole slaw and lemonade. It was all very tasty.

After everyone was filled, we tried our hand at a little horseshoe. It took several attempts, but finally there were a few ringers. By the way, the scoring was hampered by the fact that the horseshoe set was made of lightweight plastic which really presented a challenge.

The group of fourteen was small, but we all had the opportunity to become better acquainted. Everything was grand, thanks to the weather man and Mollie.

We left Lincoln on July 15. We stopped at Yellowstone National Park and Crater Lake on our way to Portland. We arrived at the Lewis and Clark campus about 1:30 on July 20. I rode with Mary Karsk from North Bend.

We had our first Advisory Council meeting on July 20 at 7:45 p.m. The Executive Board tried something different to generate more participatory democracy. They received 14 items from the membership for consideration at the meeting. As we went to the meeting we each received a piece of paper with one of the items on it. When we divided into groups, each group discussed the item they were given, and on Friday when we had our next meeting the group leader of each group presented their group's ideas before the Advisory Council as a motion or before the Executive Board as a recommendation.

On Friday night was the Professional Standards Banquet. We received our pins, PSP guards and ribbons. They told us before the banquet that we would not receive our Certificates because they weren't typed. They mailed them to us later.

The general business meeting was Saturday. On Saturday night they had the Installation Banquet.

Sunday morning we had a nondenominational church service at the Agnes Flanagan Chapel on campus. Then we went on a trip to the Columbia Gorge and Mount Hood.

The Institute was from July 24 to 28. During the week of the Institute Gert Brush from Oregon published a paper every day of the news at the Institute.

There was a general session at 8:15 before classes each day. There were four class periods each day. We had a choice of three classes for each period. The four classes I took were "Rules for the Game Called Trial," "Spelling, Usage, Punctuation," "Non-Verbal Communication," "How to Sit and Stay Fit." The last class was a P.E. class.

Monday night we had free to rest from our Sunday trip. They had a sing along.

Tuesday we went to the Japanese Rose Gardens and the Rose Test Gardens.

Wednesday night they had Balkan Folk Dancing on campus.

Thursday night we went to see the Pittock Mansion and had dinner on the River Queen.

Friday night was the Farewell Tea. At the tea we received certificates from the Lewis and Clark College for attending the classes.
We stayed over on Saturday for a trip to the coast.

On Sunday morning we started on our way back home. We stopped at Salt Lake on our way home. We returned back to Lincoln on August 1.

We had a very enjoyable trip and learned many ideas to put to good use.

Thank you for the $100.

IN MEMORIAM

The Department of Psychology has felt a great loss at the death of Mary Virginia Edwards. She passed from us June 23, 1972 quite suddenly. "Ginny," as she was known, was Secretary in the Psychological Consultation Center for six years. Needless to say, she made many friends and was a pillar of strength and help to the many graduate students who passed through our department in those years. The department is planning a lasting memorial to her memory. She was a member of UNOPA, the First Christian Church, and a worker for the City Mission.

A new year is rolling in and the renewals are too! As of 9/8/72, we have 46 renewals and nine new members. Keep it up. If you have a friend here at the University, or a new associate, let her know about UNOPA. The first meeting will be the 20th of September and we hope to see you all there.

If you have misplaced your renewal notice, we are enclosing in the NOTES another form, both new member and renewal.

If you have any questions at all, please call me at 2693 or 2745. I'll do all I can to answer your questions.

Thank you,
