CONFERENCE

7-9 March 2002

Great Plains Migrations, the University of Nebraska’s Center for Great Plains Studies’ 26th annual interdisciplinary symposium, will be held at the Cornhusker Hotel, Lincoln, Nebraska. The program will emphasize human migrations and migrations of flora and fauna. Featured speakers are Michael Forsberg, John C. Hudson, Paul Johnsgard, and Elliott West.

The Great Plains Art Collection will contribute a special exhibition to accompany the symposium, “Migrations of the Imagination: The Photographs by Michael Forsberg and Drawings, Sculptures, and Quotations by Paul A. Johnsgard, and Additional Works of Art” (1 March - 2 June 2002). The conference begins at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday evening, 7 March, in the Great Plains Art Collection at 1155 Q Street, Lincoln. Michael Forsberg and Paul Johnsgard will give opening remarks about the art exhibit followed by the symposium keynote address by Elliott West.

John C. Hudson will present a talk on human migrations at the luncheon on Friday at the Cornhusker Hotel. Paul A. Johnsgard will present a talk on waterfowl of the central Platte River on Friday evening at the University of Nebraska State Museum’s opening of the Platte River Diorama in Morrill Hall. Michael Forsberg will talk about Cranes at the Saturday luncheon at the Cornhusker Hotel. The conference will conclude that afternoon with a field trip to see the Sandhill Cranes at Rowe Sanctuary on the Platte River west of Grand Island. The complete program, paper presentations, and registration information are posted on the website.

Co-chairs are Professors David Wishart and Mary Liz Jameson. To register: contact the Center for Great Plains Studies, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, 1155 Q Street, P.O. Box 880214, Lincoln, NE 68588-0214. (404) 472-3082. Website: <www.unl.edu/plains/events/2002symp.html>.
