Theme: Exploring our Common World

All EN Thompson Forums on World Issues are held at the Lied Center for Performing Arts on the the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus. Admission is free and all Forums are open to the public. If you are not able to attend the Lied Center you can view the event live on the UNL website, Lincoln channel 21, Neb Sat, or KRNU radio 90.3 FM.

For eighteen years, the E.N. Thompson Forum on World Issues has brought a diversity of view points on international and public policy issues to the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the citizens of the state in order to promote understanding and to encourage debate. The Forum seeks out forceful speakers who are committed to the issues they address, seeking balance over the range of its programs rather than in each presentation. The Forum does not endorse the views of the individual speakers nor limit their freedom to express their points of view. more...
