HENDRICKS SYMPOSIUM
Minorities within Minorities:
Equality, Rights & Diversity

This symposium has been made possible through the support of the University of Nebraska's Hendricks Fund. Established through the generosity of Mr. G. E. Hendricks, this fund is dedicated to supporting the exploration of "current controversial political questions... in a nonpartisan, unbiased manner." Mr. Hendricks, an alumnus of the University and later an attorney in Colorado, believed that a more intelligent examination and consideration of political questions would lead to better government.

The Hendricks Fund is administered by the Political Science Department. Additional support has been provided by the Women's Studies Program and the Human Rights & Human Diversity Initiative at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

The University of Nebraska is an Affirmative Action/
Equal Opportunity institution.
