

2014

Division of Student Affairs

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/accreditation2016>

"Division of Student Affairs" (2014). 2016 Accreditation Materials. 9.
<http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/accreditation2016/9>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Accreditation at DigitalCommons@University of Nebraska - Lincoln. It has been accepted for inclusion in 2016 Accreditation Materials by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@University of Nebraska - Lincoln.

Division of Student Affairs

Mission

The Division of Student Affairs creates a supportive environment for student learning and achievement by providing essential campus services, innovative programs, and state-of-the-art facilities that complement the University's academic mission. We foster personal growth, skill development, and broad-based experiential learning in a diverse community which contributes significantly to students' overall success at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and prepares them for life-long personal and professional enrichment.

Association of Students of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, UNL Student Government

The purpose of ASUN Student Government is the regulation and coordination of all phases of student self-government and to serve as an agency through which relationships between the administration, faculty, and students and between the general public and students may be maintained.

Center for Civic Engagement

The UNL Center for Civic Engagement encourages students to connect curricular and co-curricular learning with opportunities to address critical human needs through services, civic related research and social change leadership

Dean of Students Office

The Dean of Students Office addresses the needs of the institution for: developing, disseminating, interpreting, and enforcing campus regulations for students; dealing with student behavioral problems in a fair, effective manner; and protecting relevant legal rights for students.

Office of Greek Affairs

The Greek system is a dynamic community with a continued heritage of developing character and success through the ideals of scholarship, leadership, service and maturity in a system that binds men and women together in lifelong excellence.

Nebraska Unions

The Nebraska Unions foster a social and learning environment that enhances the lives of students, faculty, staff and guests of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln through facilities, services, and programs.

Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services

The Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services (OASIS) staff provide one-on-one counseling, resources, and programs that offer UNL students the academic, cultural, and personal tools necessary to successfully navigate the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and beyond.

Services for Students with Disabilities

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is committed to providing all students the opportunity to take full advantage of its programs and facilities. The Office of Services for Students with Disabilities is designated with the responsibility of assisting the University community with reasonable accommodations to students with a documented disability.

Office of Student Assistance

The Office of Student Assistance is designated by the university to assist student members of the campus community: to resolve issues or questions of concern or dissatisfaction regarding their rights; to understand and follow the policies and procedure of the university; and to function effectively within the university system. The Office may assist in the resolution of academic, administrative, or personal problems that cannot otherwise be resolved equitably within existing mechanisms.

Student Involvement

Student Involvement provides co-curricular opportunities that complete the academic process, foster student development, and prepare all students for life beyond the University.

Trio Programs

The mission of TRIO is to promote the academic, social, and cultural development necessary for TRIO students to be successful in undergraduate education and beyond. The Office of Trio Programs is comprised of four (4) administrative components that seek to address the needs of qualified individuals. These components are: Student Support Services (SSS); Educational Talent Search (ETS); Regular Upward Bound serving Lincoln, NE (RUB); Upward Bound Math/Science serving Lincoln, NE (UBMS).

University Health Center

The University Health Center promotes the health and well-being of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln through quality health care services and clinics, and health education.

University Housing

The mission of University housing is to provide a residence environment in which all aspects of its programs, services and facilities reflect a continuous concern and sense of responsibility for addressing the physical, social, psychological, and cultural needs, as well as the academic development of each student resident.