CONTENTS

Title Page/Acknowledgements/How to Order

Foreword

PLENARY SESSION

- 1 Opening Comments — Richard L. Bruggers
- 2 Environmental and Economic Costs of Vertebrate Species Invasions into the United States — David Pimentel
- 9 Invasive Species: A National Perspective and the Need for a Coordinated Response — Lori Williams
- 12 International Perspective on Programmes of Invasive Vertebrate Species — Greg Sherley
- 29 A “Community” Approach to Invasive Species Management: Some Pacific Case Studies — Alan Saunders, Henri Blaffart, Craig Morley, Joape Kuruyawa, Vilikesa Masibalavu, and Elenoa Seniloli

INITIATIVES, PUBLIC EDUCATION AND ECONOMICS

- 34 Global Harmonisation in the Field of Invasive Species Management Product Development — Steven Lapidge, Simon Humphrys, and David Dall
- 43 Managing Non-native Wildlife in Florida: State Perspective, Policy and Practice — Scott Hardin
- 53 Custom Trucks, Radio Snake Jingles, and Temporary Tattoos: An Overview of a Successful Public Awareness Campaign Related to Brown Treesnakes in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands — Nathaniel B. Hawley
- 57 Promoting Awareness, Knowledge and Good Intentions — Christy Martin
- 63 Habitattitude™: Getting a Backbone About the Pet Release Pathway — Jamie K. Reaser and N. Marshall Meyers

- 72 Considering Control of Invasive Barred Owls to Benefit California Spotted Owls: Possible Justification and Draft Methods — Kent B. Livezey, Richard M. Engeman, Dennis F. Rock, and Donald A. Yasuda

PREVENTION

- 82 Prioritization of action on non-native species – Progress in Great Britain — Niall Moore
- 85 The Failed Regulatory System for Animal Imports into the United States--and How to Fix It — Peter T. Jenkins
- 90 Monitoring the Sale and Trafficking of Invasive Vertebrate Species Using Automated Internet Search and Surveillance Tools — Karl Suiter and Sandra Sferrazza
- 94 Using Pathway Analysis to Inform Prevention Strategies for Alien Reptiles and Amphibians — Fred Kraus
- 104 Island Biosecurity as a Pest Management Tactic in New Zealand — Keith Broome
- 108 Invasive Species Management and Research Using GIS — Tracy Holcombe, Thomas J. Stohlgren, and Catherine Jarnevich
- 115 Pest Eradication Technology – The Critical Partner to Pest Exclusion Technology: The Maungatautari Experience — Cam Speedy, Tim Day, and John Innes
- 127 Management of Invasive Vertebrates in the United States: An Overview — Gary W. Witmer, Patrick W. Burke, Will C. Pitt, and Michael L. Avery

REPTILES AND AMPHIBIANS

- 138 Climate Matching as a Tool for Predicting Potential North American Spread of Brown Treesnakes — Gordon H. Rodda, Robert N. Reed, and Catherine S. Jarnevich
- 146 The Role of Early Detection and Rapid Response in Thwarting Amphibian and Reptile Introductions in Florida — Todd S. Campbell
- 157 Coqui Frog Research and Management Efforts in Hawai'i — Hans Sin and Adam Radford
- 168 Impacts of Introduced Species on an Island Ecosystem: Non-native Reptiles and Amphibians in the U.S. Virgin Islands — Renata J. Platenberg
- 175 The Brown Treesnake Rapid Response Team — James W. Stanford and Gordon H. Rodda
- 218 Flotation Materials for Aerial Delivery of Acetaminophen Toxic Baits to Brown Treesnakes — Peter J. Savarie, Tom C. Mathies, and Kathleen A. Fagerstone
- 224 An Evaluation of Passive Thermal Fumigation for Brown Treesnake Control in Surface Transportation from Guam — Gad Perry and Daniel S. Vice
- 234 Spotting Cryptic Animals in the Dark: What Light Properties Should a Good Headlamp Have? — Bjorn Lardner, Julie A. Savidge, and Gordon H. Rodda
- 246 Can Temperature be Used as a Tool for Limiting Brown Treesnake Invasion via Transportation Pathways? — Michelle T. Christy, Julie A. Savidge, Richard Bischof, and Gordon H. Rodda

- 257 Size-based Trends and Management Implications of Microhabitat Utilization by Brown Treesnakes, with an Emphasis on Juvenile Snakes — Gordon H. Rodda and Robert N. Reed

RODENTS

- 268 Early Detection and Eradication of Invading Rats — James C. Russell, Mick N. Clout, and David R. Towns
- 273 Tree Squirrels as Invasive Species: Conservation and Management Implications — Geoffrey H. Palmer, John L. Koprowski, and Tony Pernas
- 283 Invasive Rats and Bubonic Plague in Northwest Uganda — Jeff N. Borchert, Jeff J. Mach, Timothy J. Linder, Asaph Ogen-Odoi, and Santos Angualia
- 294 Eradicating House Mice from Islands: Successes, Failures and the Way Forward — Jamie W. B. MacKay, James C. Russell, and Elaine C. Murphy
- 305 The Path to Eradication of the Gambian Giant Pouched Rat in Florida — Richard M. Engeman, Gary W. Witmer, Jean B. Bourassa, John W. Woolard, Bernice Constantin, Parker T. Hall, Scott Hardin, and Neil D. Perry
- 312 Research and Development of a New Rodenticide for Nutria — Jeff J. Mach and Richard M. Poché
- 318 Genetic Options for the Control of Invasive Vertebrate Pests: Prospects and Constraints — Ronald E. Thresher
- 332 Alaska's Rat Spill Response Program — Steven M. Ebbert, Arthur L. Sowls, and G. Vernon Byrd

BIRDS AND MULTIPLE SPECIES

- 338 Population Ecology and Some Potential Impacts of Emerging Populations of Exotic Parrots — Douglas E. Runde, Will C. Pitt, and J. T. Foster
- 361 Managing Starlings in Australis – Can DRC-1339 Be the Answer? — Tina Bentz, Steven Lapidge, David Dall, and Ronald G. Sinclair
- 365 Florida's Non-native Avifauna — Michael L. Avery and Michael P. Moulton
- 378 European Starlings: A Review of an Invasive Species with Far-reaching Impacts — George M. Linz, H. Jeffrey Homan, Shannon M. Gaukler, Linda B. Penry, and William J. Bleier
- 387 Control and Eradication of the North American Ruddy Duck in Europe — Iain Henderson and Pete Robertson
- 393 Probabilistic Bioenergetic/Toxicity Modeling Approach for Estimating Toxicant Induced Mortality to Target Invasive Species and Non-target Wildlife — John J. Johnston, Randal S. Stahl, H. Jefferey Homan, George M. Linz, and Will C. Pitt
- 398 Reducing Risk and Enhancing Efficiency in Non-native Vertebrate Removal Efforts on Islands: a 25-Year Multi-taxa Retrospective from Santa Cruz Island, California — Scott A. Morrison
- 410 Developing Strategy and Tools for the Local Elimination of Multiple Pest Species — Graham Nugent, David R. Morgan, Peter Sweetapple, and Bruce Warburton

418 Multiple-Species Exclusion Fencing and Technology for Mainland Sites — Tim Day and Roger MacGibbon

434 Wildlife Contraception: Targeting the Oocyte — Richard E. Mauldin and Lowell A. Miller

MAMMALS

445 Methods and Strategies for Managing Feral Hog Damage in Grain Production Areas in Central Texas — T. J. Muir and Gary McEwen

451 Landscape Genetics of Feral Swine and Implications for Management — Johanna Delgado-Acevedo, Randy W. DeYoung, and Tyler A. Campbell

454 DNA Detection of Foxes to Prevent Establishment in Tasmania — Stephen D. Sarre, Rachel Walsh, Niccy Aitken, Alison Foster, and Nick Mooney

460 Ecology of an Invasive Predator in Hawai'i — Steven C. Hess, Heidi Hansen, and Paul C. Banko

469 Developing a New Toxin for Potential Control of Feral Cats, Stoats, and Wild Dogs in New Zealand — Elaine C. Murphy, Charles T. Eason, Steve Hix, and Duncan B. MacMorran

474 Developing a Decision Support System for Improving Possum Control Planning — Bruce Warburton, Jim D. Coleman, Mark Fuglestad, and Jens Dietrich

476 The Political, Economic and Management History of a Successful Exotic Eradication: the Case of Black-tailed Jackrabbits in One Part of Florida — Richard M. Engeman, Bernice Constantin, and Jeffrey Bunting
