The Sue Tidball Award for Creative Humanity

Sue Tidball (1925-1976) invested her life, energy and spirit in human beings. She enriched the community with volunteer work in her church and in many social service agencies. In 1966 she became a counselor and resource consultant with the UMHE campus ministry at UNL, and in her work with individuals and groups on the campus was well known for her joyous, positive, adventurous and hopeful style of being. Aware for the last 20 years of her life that she had an incurable, debilitating disease, she turned that reality into creative and caring sensitivity to others.*

CREATIVE HUMANITY AWARD

This annual award, presented to individuals from the campus community, is a way of recognizing significant contributions to the development of a humane, educationally creative, and caring community within UNL. The award is also a symbolic recognition of everyone associated with the University who daily makes such contributions. You are encouraged to nominate a person for the SUE TIDBALL AWARD FOR CREATIVE HUMANITY.

NOMINATION PROCESS

Anyone associated with UNL is encouraged to nominate a student, faculty or staff member. Nominations must be for one individual only and not for a couple or a team. Nominations in the past years have included secretaries, administrators, custodial workers, faculty, staff members, graduate and undergraduate students.

Information, forms and guidelines are available at Cornerstone (640 N. 16th St.), Human Resources (Admin. 407), Student Involvement offices (NU 200 & ECU 300), the Culture Center, IFC-Panhellenic (NU 332), all residence hall desks, and many college and divisional offices. Information and forms can also be accessed at Website <http://www.unl.edu/tidball/>. For electronic submission of nomination forms and supporting letter, send to uc@unlinfo.unl.edu.

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE BY MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1999 at Sue Tidball Award, Cornerstone, 640 N. 16th., Lincoln, NE 68588-0440.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

Nominations are sought for individuals who have made significant contributions, beyond usual job or role expectations, to a more creative and humane learning, working and/or living environment at UNL, in one or more of the following ways:

1. Creating new processes or structures, or improving old ones, which make the work/living environment better for everyone.
2. Exhibiting caring attitudes that positively and lastingly affect individual lives.
3. Helping to bridge or heal "gaps" between different groups on campus (e.g. faculty & students, clerical staff & faculty, maintenance workers & students); or helping groups "on the fringe" to move more into the center of campus life.

SELECTION PROCESS

The Award Committee (an independent group of faculty, staff, students and community persons) administers the nomination process and selects the award recipient(s) each year.

All Nominees will be publicly honored at the Annual Award Event and Celebration, scheduled for Sunday March 7, 1999, beginning at 7:00 PM., at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, 13th & R Streets, Lincoln.
