UNOPA'S 1993/94 ROSE FROLIK AWARD

This annual award was created to recognize a University of Nebraska Office Personnel Association (UNOPA) member who demonstrates the attributes of UNOPA's founder and first president, Rose Frolik. Rose is an enthusiastic, energetic person who challenges life and feels that how you do your work may be a lot more important than what you do. The nomination criteria includes: leadership characteristics, professional characteristics/quest for professional growth, involvement in UNOPA, and personal characteristics.

Any UNOPA member who has been an active member for at least the last five years is eligible except the 1993/94 UNOPA Executive Board and the members of this year's Awards Committee. A nomination may be made by anyone, including self. Nominations are due to UNOPA's Awards Director by 5:00 P.M. on Friday, March 4, 1994.

Upon receipt of the nomination, a request for further information will be sent for completion by the nominator, either with or without assistance from the nominee. The completed nomination resume must be returned by noon on Wednesday, March 16, 1994. An independent group of three individuals from outside the UNL community will administer the selection process and choose the recipient. The judging panel consists of: a personnel head from a local industry, a local media personality, and a humanitarian.

This award will be presented at UNOPA's Luncheon/Meeting on April 12, 1994. The recipient will receive an engraved plaque, a check for $300, and a one year membership in UNOPA.
