NHPRC FELLOWSHIP COMPETITION ANNOUNCED

The 1979-1980 competition for National Historical Publications and Records Commission fellowships in historical editing is under way. Participating projects are The Adams Papers (Massachusetts Historical Society), Documentary Relations of the Southwest (Arizona State Museum, University of Arizona), the Frederick Douglass Papers (Yale University), and the Documentary History of the First Federal Congress (George Washington University). Competence in Spanish is required for the Southwest fellowship. Fellows receive a stipend of $13,000 and spend a year in training at one of the projects. Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in an appropriate field of history or should have completed all requirements for the doctorate except the dissertation. Applications are available from the NHPRC, National Archives, Washington, D.C. 20408. Application deadline: March 1, 1980.
