NHPRC RESEARCH STAFF INTERN PROGRAM AVAILABLE

The intern program of the Research Staff of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission has been designed for senior level undergraduate and graduate students in American history, American studies, and archives administration. The program provides a multi-faceted experience for the participant. Interns do not receive any financial assistance. They do receive a unique education in historical research using original manuscript materials. Academic arrangements, i.e., receiving credit toward a degree, must be made by the student with his or her department and/or university. For further information write Mary A. Giunta, Supervisor, Research Staff, NHPRC, National Archives, Washington, D.C. 20408.
