President Presented First Volume of Andrew Jackson Papers

The first volume of The Papers of Andrew Jackson, published 28 June 1980 by the University of Tennessee Press, was presented to President Jimmy Carter at a recent White House ceremony.

Sam B. Smith, editor of the volume, made the presentation. Also attending the ceremony were Harriet Chappell Owsley, coeditor, Frank Burke, Carol Orr, director of the University of Tennessee Press, a chancellor of the University of Tennessee, representatives of the Ladies Hermitage Association, and members of the Tennessee congressional delegation.

Sponsors of the Jackson Papers project are the Ladies Hermitage Association of Tennessee, the University of Tennessee, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, and the Tennessee Historical Commission. When completed, the series of sixteen volumes will contain more than sixty thousand items including correspondence, business accounts, memoranda, legal documents, and other papers written to and by Jackson. The first volume covers Jackson's early years, from 1770 through 1803. The University of Tennessee Press also publishes the papers of another Tennessee president, Andrew Johnson. Future volumes of the Papers of Andrew Jackson will be prepared under the editorship of Harold D. Moser, who was editor of the Correspondence Series of the Papers of Daniel Webster.
