The Nebraska Anthropologist is a publication of the UN-L Anthropology Student Group, a group of approximately 40 active graduate and undergraduate anthropology majors and other interested students and individuals. Its publication serves to disseminate unfunded student research in the subfields of anthropology.

The Nebraska Anthropologist welcomes original contributions on anthropology or related fields. Manuscripts for submission should be typed, double spaced throughout and should closely follow style and editorial policy of the American Anthropologist. An informal review system, involving faculty and students, is employed in article/monograph selection.

Volume 1 of the Nebraska Anthropologist is out of print; Volumes 2 and 3 are available for $1.00 each. Volume 4 may be purchased for $2.50. The present volume is available for $3.50.
