PROFESSIONAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENT NETWORK IN HIGHER EDUCATION

August 1991

Dear POD Colleagues:

I hope you have had a restful and relaxing summer. You did finish all those projects that you had put off until the summer! Well, there is always next summer. And you are ready for the term to begin? And for the conference!

16th ANNUAL POD CONFERENCE

The conference coordinator, Christine Stanley, and her colleagues have put together an exciting conference plan which is described in detail on the enclosures. Read them. All we need is you! Remember:

- Register for the conference, if you haven't done so already!
- Register for pre-conference workshops!
- Fill in the ground transportation form!
- Sign up for the Saturday afternoon activities!
- Reserve a space at the Resource Fair!
- Don't forget your institution's sweatshirt!

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Now is the time to renew your membership. You can do that when you register for the conference. If you are not attending the conference, just fill in the enclosed membership renewal form.

PUBLICATIONS

Enclosed is a copy of our newest publications list. Do you have them? Does your library?

- * Have you subscribed to Teaching Excellence?
- * Do you have the Handbook for New Practitioners?
- * Order our latest publication: Doing Faculty Development by Committee (See the enclosed description for details.)

TO IMPROVE THE ACADEMY

Ken Zahorski, the current editor of To Improve the Academy, has just sent Volume 10 off to the printers. It will be available for you at the conference. The 1992 co-editors, Donald Wulff and Jody Nyquist, invite your contributions for the next issue.

SAD NEWS

Jack Lindquist, one of the founding members of POD, died suddenly in April of a heart attack. Jack's contributions to POD and to faculty development through his work on the CORE Committee, his presentations at our conferences, and his writings on change in higher education have been significant. He will be missed.
