President's Message from Tricia Liedle
(http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36152)

On April 6, I will have the honor of representing UNOPA by being included in the installation ceremony of Chancellor Green. In all my years at the university I don't recall ever being invited to the installation and never in my wildest dreams could I have imagined actually getting to be involved. Continue reading...

Learn more about Macie’s Place
(http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36192)

At the February general meeting we had the pleasure of hearing all about “Macie’s Place,” a hidden philanthropy many of our members knew nothing about. Continue reading... (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36192)

Thank you to Dr. Masters
(http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36149)
UNOPA wishes to express thanks to Dr. Julie Masters for her presentation on an important, but frequently avoided, topic. “In Memory of Colin Hays: The benefit of a death plan” was presented on Feb. 21 in a lighthearted manner. Continue reading... (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36149)

Nominate an officer (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36156)

It is that time of year when we need to start thinking about nominating someone to run for an elected office for UNOPA. You also have the right to nominate yourself to be on the UNOPA ballot. Being involved in UNOPA at the board level is an excellent way to building your networking system. Continue reading... (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36156)

Items from past events up for grabs (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36154)

UNOPA has some surplus items from past anniversary celebrations that we would be happy to disperse. If you are interested in a blue UNOPA zippered bag with handles or a reusable/collapsible vase, please contact Tricia Liedle. Continue reading... (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36154)

Tips for recruiting UNOPA members (http://newsroom.unl.edu/announce/unopa/6444/36160)

We have a natural tendency to want to “convince” others to want to join based on what we get out of the... organization. Instead, we should be concentrating on what the prospective member would get out of membership based on their interests (“what's in it for them”). Continue reading...
