LONDON BRANCH REPORT 1993

by Graham Handley and Beryl Gray

This is our farewell note as officers of the London Branch. We resigned in April, Michael Forrest our Secretary in March. We understand that the Fellowship Council has approved Elizabeth Gundry's ideas for a number of events to be held in the future in the London area, and we hope that these will be well supported.

We should particularly like to thank Michael Forrest and his wife Suzanne for hosting so delightfully three memorable George Eliot occasions for the Branch at St Philip's, Earl's Court Road in the past.
