2003 PARKING LOT USAGE A

Date: AUGUST 01, 2003

This agreement, by and between the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, hereinafter called the "University", AND UNOPA, hereinafter called "USER", provides for control of University parking areas during special events.

- 1 In consideration for the University assigning approximately 799+ parking rental spaces during the 2003 home football games, the USER will provide service, control and collection of fees. The following division of funds will be made: the charge is $10.00 per rental, USER will retain $4.00.
- 2 Change funds, tickets, and money bags will be furnished by the University for each game. Standard auditing procedures will be followed. All funds will be transported to UNL Parking and Transit Services after sales, no later than 1/2 hour after kick-off. All funds will be counted, division of funds will be made, and a check will be issued by the State of Nebraska to user within approximately two weeks.
- 3 USER will appoint one member to coordinate with UNL Parking and Transit Services, USER must furnish University Parking and Transit Services with a name to who the check will be made payable, as well as a name and address where the check can be mailed.
- 4 Any materials such as advertising, flyers, etc., distributed at the lot by the USER and subsequently discarded by patrons, will be picked up and placed in trash receptacles by the USER, which will be provided by the University Landscape Services at each parking facility.
- 5 The following are the dates of the seven 2003 home football games: August 30, September 06, September 13, October 04, October 18, October 25, and November 15. Kickoff times are subject to change. Adjustments in reporting times will be made when necessary.
- 6 The number of attendants needed for the assigned parking area will be two (2) per entrance. At least one attendant will need to report to Parking & Transit Office by 6:30a.m and in their parking lot no later than 7:00am. All other attendants will need report at least four (4) hours prior to kickoff, and one per entrance must stay until 1/2 hour after kick-off. Exception; kickoff is at 11:00am, reporting time for everyone would be 6:30a.m.
