GUEST SPEAKER

Megan Patel, Program Coordinator for the Huskers Helping Huskers Pantry, was our guest speaker. The pantry opened in January 2017 as a result of a 2015 student survey that reported a significant number of students have food and shelter insecurity. Located on the 3rd floor of the City Campus Union, the pantry provides current Nebraska students an unlimited amount of food and hygiene items for free and/or resources related to food and shelter insecurity.

During her presentation, Megan presented the membership with what it means to have food and shelter insecurity, demographics and frequency of those using the pantry and popular items taken from the pantry.

More information on location, hours and where and what to donate can be found at pantry.unl.edu. Each month a Most Wanted Item of the Month is posted to the website. You may also request a bin to be placed in your office as a drop-off location for donations to the pantry. Please help get the word out to students about this great cause.

Kelsey Sims announced that our next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 9. Nancy Myers from Human Resources will present on getting things done without authority. A parking lot sign-up sheet was also available at the check-in table.
