Listening on China \(This Week\)

February 18, 2010 in Uncategorized by The China Beat | Permalink

We wanted to draw reader attention to a few interviews that aired this week from regular China Beat contributors.

Yesterday, Jeff Wasserstrom appeared on NPR's Morning Edition to discuss Obama's meeting with the Dalai Lama. You can listen to the four-minute interview here.

On Tuesday, an interview with Sam Crane, who posted a piece about Avatar at China Beat last month, aired on "Here on Earth: Radio Without Borders." The show devoted an entire hour to the topic "Confucius vs. Avatar." You can listen to the show, which includes lengthy conversation with Crane, here. You can also listen at Crane's blog, The Useless Tree.
