To the Horizon and Beyond. Edited by Jerome Martin. Edmonton, Alberta: Spotted Cow Press, 1990. Photographs. vi + 71 pp. $14.95.

To the Horizon and Beyond is a collection of reminiscences of former student ministers of the United Church of Canada who spent summer internships in Golden Prairie, Saskatchewan, between 1929 and 1975. Personal accounts relate how the student ministers, who were mainly from central and eastern Canada, dealt with local religious and social responsibilities. The students also give their impressions of the weather, the land, and the people of the Canadian Great Plains.
