NEWS AND NOTES

CALL FOR PAPERS

April 7-10, 2010

“Czech and Slovak Americans: International Perspectives from the Great Plains,” is the title of the 36th Interdisciplinary Symposium sponsored by the Center for Great Plains Studies, University of Nebraska–Lincoln. This 2010 Symposium will address all aspects of the experience of Czech and Slovak immigrants and their descendants in the Great Plains region, as well as the relationships of these citizens with other Czech- and Slovak- Americans and with Czechs and Slovaks in Europe and in other parts of the world.

All interested scholars, including advanced graduate students, are encouraged to participate in the 2010 Symposium and are asked to send abstracts of proposed papers with a short vitae in English, the symposium language, by November 1, 2009, to the following e-mail address: cgps@unl.edu. Please, title your e-mail “2010 Symposium” in the subject line.

Co-chairs of the symposium are Bruce Garver, Professor of History, University of Nebraska at Omaha and Míla Šašková-Pierce, Professor of Languages, University of Nebraska–Lincoln. See the ad on page 156.
