Length of Service

Length of service makes for continuity in any business . . . . And in one such as ours where we deal with the subscriber direct, it is of special importance. It gives everybody the feeling of mutual confidence and understanding that comes only from long and valued association.

More than one-third of our Shepard employees have been with us 5 years or longer, and 23 of them can boast of having been with us 25 years or more. Younger ones look forward to setting a similar record in the future—a "family" relationship that only comes from this kind of employment.

It is also a source of pride and satisfaction to us that there are numbered among the users of Shepard's Citations today the children and grandchildren of subscribers who purchased their first citation service from us 80 years ago.

And for our increasing list of new subscribers we will conscientiously strive to build the same confidence which has enabled us to retain, through eight decades, the faith and good will of our old subscribers.

The long and honorable experience of this organization is but one of the many reasons why it is able to meet the most exacting requirements of the legal profession.
