Major Findings

1. In Tamilnadu, there are 1485 affiliated colleges (Arts, Science, Education and Physical Education) to the state Universities. Out of which, only 168 (8.8%) Affiliated colleges subscribed the N-List e-resources.

2. In the year wise N-List subscription, 42 Tamilnadu Universities Affiliated colleges subscribed during 2009. After that subscription was fluctuating and decreasing until 2017. The least subscription was recorded during the year 2017.
3. In Tamilnadu state University Affiliated Govt and Aided colleges, the Manonmaniam Sundaranar University had subscribed 24 (70.5%) till 2017, whereas the Alagappa University Affiliated (Govt and Aided colleges) subscribed only 2 (12.5%)
4. Out of 742 Affiliated colleges under Tamilnadu State Teachers Education University's, only 11 college subscribed N-List
5. In Tamilnadu State Physical Education University's affiliated colleges, out of 19 only 2 subscribed N-List
6. It was evident that Govt. and Aided colleges are the higher subscribers of the N-List. This may be because, the yearly subscription fees for them was only Rs. 5000/- only
7. On the other hand, the subscription fees was Rs.30,000/- for the Self Finance colleges. This might be the reason for the minimum subscription by the Self Finance colleges
8. In India, among the top ten colleges utilizing the N-List resources, the Stella Mary's college Chennai and Ramakrishna college, Coimbatore were from Tamilnadu state which ranks 5th and 7th respectively.

Conclusion

This is the Digital India which following throughout the users. This N-List digital programmes are very useful for the academicians, researchers and faculty from various departments throughout the world.

So all the student community were very much interested to join this N-List programme. This is the most useful for the Arts and Science college students. Now a days, all the students having Android mobiles, Tab and computer, so this very simple and more active used N-List. So I am very much thanks to UGC INFLIBNET N-List facilities, because right time, good effort and good initiative was taken for the higher education facility.
