MUSEUM TRACTOR TEST MUSEUM
COMMITTEE MINUTES

Roger Welsch will donate "Woodpecker", his antique Allis Chalmers tractor, for raffling. We hope to announce and begin the raffle on May 2. Recommend $1.00 per raffle ticket or 6 tickets for $5.00.

Will contact Camp Creek Threshers and other antique tractor clubs about raffling tractor. Also patrons of state fair, antique shows, magazines, and others will be solicited to buy raffle tickets.

Bill Johnson is coming to dedication to represent ASAE.

Traffic Control - At least three students needed at entrance to campus, plus four near museum.

Only handicapped drivers will be allowed along north side parallel parking area. North area lot will be filled with chairs plus stand for refreshments.

Committee members should be at museum at 1:00 to 1:15 p.m. on May 2.

Probably need 12 students total to help in parking and selling refreshments.

Have Sheila put up direction signs for restrooms to Chase Hall and BSE Research Laboratory.

Considering selling Allis Chalmers crawler tractor to restoration fellow in Minnesota for $700.

Splinter will check on liability insurance for May 2.

FUND RAISING ISSUES

Committee members will check on ownership of duplicate or excess tractors to determine if they can be sold to raise funds.

Naming of the level of financial support to the museum will be:

Above $50,000	Lester Larsen
$10,000 to $5,000	Chauncey Smith
$5,000 to $10,000	Carlton Fink
$1,000 to $5,000	Fred Chase
$200 to $1,000	Benefactor
Below $200	Patron

Meeting was adjourned at 2:55 p.m.
