Curator's Report

Included in Interim Museum Director report.

Splinter, with the help of the foundation (Susan Sack), will solicit funds for renovating the exterior walls and the garage.

Museum will have an "Open House" on Saturday, May 4, 2002. Event will be similar to previous years.

State Museum Director's Report

(Jim Estes was not present for a report)

Newsletter Editor Report (Bob Kleis)

Put out three newsletters last year. He suggested Judy Ray be the new editor since she was the main preparer of the last two newsletters. She agreed to become editor.

Museum Docent Report (Mark Nickolaus)

(Information on Hay Forks attached)

Museum has forks numbered 2, 3, and 4.

During 2000, had 149 visitors sign in. During 2001 had 260 visitors. The museum had many other visitors who did not sign the register.

Museum Secretary Report (Judy Ray)

Has been painting, preparing newsletters, and trimming trees. They have also acquired safety pictures from Rollie Schnieder. Bashford announced that there were many old pictures in the NE Tractor Test Laboratory. The museum may want many of these pictures. Some of these photos would make an excellent display for the Museum Open House.

Honorary Membership Candidate (Earl Ellington)

Mark Nickolaus nominated for honorary membership. Mark was elected unanimously. He was presented an honorary membership certificate.

New Officers Report

Officers for 2002 are the same as for 2001 because offices are for two years.

Museum Help (Leviticus)

Lou suggested a list be prepared for two volunteer Friends to have the museum open on Saturdays. Would set up a docent course for all the Friends (new docents) to learn the details of the museum. If agreeable would then advertise that museum is open on Saturdays. Asked Friends of the Museum to provide list of potential docents for Saturdays. Motion moved to send out a flyer to inquire of interest in becoming docents of the museum on Saturdays. A friendly amendment was that this was a worthwhile activity for the friends.

Museum Website (Gail Ogden)

Gave a demonstration of what is on the website.
