President Cary requested that the Finance Committee review the last two years of spending to get an idea of where expenses have gone and to report at the August meeting.

Creative Brief: A handout she shared with the board as a tool for all directors and officers.

Meeting Rules: Honest and open communication within a short concise time frame. Review and follow parliamentary procedures. Motions should be written in advance of the meeting when possible. Written reports should be submitted to the recording secretary and brief oral reports presented at the meetings. Directors were asked to report on committee work and decisions made, but not to leave committee work up to the board. Unfinished business would only be listed if motions were pending. Come prepared!
