Message from Our President

Peg Johnson

I'm ready for sunshine ! ☀️ I'll take all the rays that come my way that is within reason. I'm not a person who likes to tan or get sunburned, I'm just ready to get outside and add more steps on my pedometer. It's been difficult for me to get moving for a number of reasons. Hope to pass you on the trails around campus!

I'm very disappointed that I missed out on our meeting and the presentation of the downtown arena last month due to another meeting conflict. I would like to thank everyone who donated tuna for the Backpack and Food Bank Programs. We turned in a total of seventy cans (50 from our meeting, 10 from my department and 10 from me) which equal 33 pounds. When I saw that one of the local stores had canned tuna on sale, I couldn't resist the temptation. At our next meeting, we will be collecting 16 ounce bags of white rice. I sincerely hope you will continue to contribute.

I wanted to keep you in the loop of things. The Faculty Senate recommended, the Academic Planning Committee (APC) agreed, and the Chancellor concurred that the Presidents (or designees) of UNOPA and UAAD will be on the APC during Phases I,

2, and 3 of the budget reallocations and reductions process as non-voting individuals, pending official adoption of a new Procedures document. If the scenario presents itself, we will be able to express our concerns.

Recently I came across an article on the internet by Jim Rohn, "Four Words That Make Life Worthwhile". They are "learn, try, stay and care." If you are interested in expanding your horizon, check out this short article.

Hopefully you have had time to read about the Central Area Professional Development Day / NEOPA Spring Conference, April 23-24, 2010. Remember the deadline date to register is April 9th.

In case you haven't heard, UNOPA and UAAD are sponsoring the city campus Toastmasters. The original members came up with the name NU Toasters. This group meets every Thursday from 12:00-1:00 p.m. in the city union.

I hope to see you at our next UNOPA meeting.

Mary Ann Bede

Louisa May Alcott Portrayed at the Annual PSP Luncheon

by Lorraine Moon, CEOE

The Professional Standards Program (PSP) Endowment Group of the University of Nebraska Office Professionals Association journeyed to the 1800s at their 4th Annual PSP Luncheon on March 6. The Speaker, Mary Ann Bede, portrayed Louisa May Alcott, the author of Little Women and numerous other books which were written during the Civil War period. Mary Ann dressed as the author and spoke as if she were Louisa. This 1800s author was influenced by Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau.

Decorations from the past adorned the tables.

The luncheon was held at Vine Congregational Church. In addition to the presentation and lunch, a silent auction was enjoyed by all those attending. Donations by Committee Members and various Lincoln businesses contributed to a very successful auction.

UNOPA PSP members on the Committee were Jeanne Andelt, Kathy Bennetch, Lynn DeShon, Debbie Hendricks, Barbara Homer, Pat Hust, Tricia Liedle, Linda Luedtke, Lorraine Moon, Cathy Robertson, Edie Schleiger, Doreen Wagenaar, Gretchen Walker, Diane Wasser, Carol Wusk, and Lola Young.
