Officer Reports:

President: Denise Fisher
President Fisher reported this was a pilot year for NEOPA and everyone’s help was needed. NEOPA has a five-year Strategic Plan that focuses on Professional Development.

NEOPA Board members will have two retreats and all members are invited to attend.

The North Central Area (NCA) Conference will be held in Rochester, Minnesota in April and the NAEOP Conference will be held in St. Louis, Missouri.

President-elect Membership: Amy Windle
Amy Windle reported NEOPA currently has a total of 171 members. 122 Active; 14 New; 2 Associate; 17 Honorary; 2 Lifetime; and 14 Retired.

Vice President/Meetings Coordinator: Joan Wilkins
Joan Wilkins thanked the committee members who planned the Fall Conference.

Secretary: Lora Sypal
Lora Sypal asked for a few NEOPA members to serve on her committee for reviewing and proofing the minutes.

Past President/Field Service
Mary Guest reported the Annual Report will be completed next week. The Bylaws are in the process of being cleaned up and we are developing additional standing rules pertaining to electronic meetings. If members are interested in working on the Bylaws or Standing Rules, contact Mary at Mary.guest@unl.edu.

Mary Guest reported for Outreach that the focus will be Omaha, Wayne, Columbus, and Grand Island. Associations that are disbanding will still have a place in NEOPA.

Treasurer: Debbie Hendricks
The treasurer’s report and the updated expense reimbursement forms are on-line www.neopa.unl.edu. Debbie Hendricks thanked the committee who performed the audit of the 2014-15 records.

Coordinator Reports:
Recognition: Tami Friend
Tami Friend reported there wasn’t a Nebraska Educational Office Professional of the Year Award selected this year as no complete nominations were submitted. The Administrator of the Year Award was suspended for one year.
Members who wish to be on the Recognition Committee which includes Publicity, contact Tami at tfriend@lps.org.

Networking: Carol Bom, absent, Debbie Doolittle reporting.
Debbie Doolittle reported for Carol Bom and asked members what they think is the best format for means of communication with NEOPA members?  If you have some ideas, please email Carol at carol.bom@nebraska.gov.

President Fisher announced changes will be coming in regards to the NEOPA website.

Leadership: Caroline Helget
Caroline Helget had no report.

Fellowship: Jennifer Bahr
Jennifer Bahr reported about the North Central Area (NCA) Conference in April in Rochester, Minnesota, and the NAEOP Conference in July in St. Louis, Missouri.  Any questions you have about these events, please contact Jennifer at jbahr@lps.org.

NEOPA is doing the following fundraisers: 50/50 and two raffle items at the Fall Conference. Information is also available for Fun Pasta and Village Inn pie gift cards. (Flyer attached)

Mentoring: Edie Schleiger
Edie Schleiger reported the Mentoring Committee is piloting a program to develop a mentoring program for those members who are interested. There are mentoring cards on the table today for members to complete if you are interested in being a mentor. Also, when the Fall Conference evaluation is emailed to you, provide feedback about the mentoring program.

If you would like to be on the Mentoring Committee or if you have additional ideas for mentoring, please contact Edie at Eschleiger1@unl.edu.

New Business:
President Fisher reported the NEOPA board is brainstorming on taking a new approach to the Spring Conference such as having a workshop and then a recognition dinner. Everyone has something to contribute, please consider attending the Board Retreats.

The North Central Area (NCA) Conference is in April in Rochester, Minnesota. Members are encouraged to attend if it works with their schedules.

Award presentations: Tami Friend and Caroline Helget
Tami Friend reported Stella Bernadt from Lincoln Southeast High School was the recipient of the NEOPA student scholarship for the school year 2014-2015. She also received the NAEOP Marion T. Wood Scholarship Award. She plans to enroll at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln majoring in Business and Fashion Design. Tami Friend reported last fall Barbara Homer received the Educational Office Professional of the Year Award and this summer she also received the NAEOP Olive T. Ritchie Educational Office Professional of the Year Award.
