1999

A Postcard To Rev.F.R. Evans (George Eliot's Nephew)

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/ger

Part of the Comparative Literature Commons, Literature in English, British Isles Commons, and the Women's Studies Commons

http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/ger/336

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the English, Department of at DigitalCommons@University of Nebraska - Lincoln. It has been accepted for inclusion in The George Eliot Review by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@University of Nebraska - Lincoln.
A POSTCARD TO REV. F. R. EVANS (GEORGE ELIOT'S NEPHEW)
[Postmarked Bedworth 11 August 1911]

‘Re George Eliot’ ‘A’ [in red ink]

(Mary Ann Evans)

Sir, I assume that you read the Ten Commandments in your church – yet in the Nuneaton Chronicle article in The Star of Aug. 7, you are said by A. E. Cross¹ to be in favour of a memorial to this ‘evil-liver’. Let us hope that if people who gloat over the uncleanly erect a memorial the ‘Scarlet letter’ ‘A’² (Adulteress) will be conspicuously placed – as it is written by many of us on the title page of her works –

Let the silly project die or her infamous cohabitation will be re-published

A. P. Richard³

Notes
1. The founder of the George Eliot Fellowship.
2. “A” written in red ink.
3. Writer’s identity unknown at present but may have been known to Canon Evans, although there is no address on the postcard.

(The under-linings are the author’s own.)