Go where Comfort is

You can't be comfortable at home, and it is useless to try.
To be comfortable, you must go where comfort is—California.
In California—even in midwinter—wraps and overcoats are unnecessary. The sun shines bright and clear, and there is just enough snap in the air to make it invigorating; just enough warmth to tempt you to spend all day and every day out-of-doors.
In California—even in midwinter—you can hunt, and play golf. You can catch the biggest fish ever snared by hook and line. You can pick flowers, climb mountains, go a-picknicking, or stroll through the prettiest valleys in America; palms and orange groves all about you and the bluest of blue skies above you. The way to go to California is via the
