during May, 1969, was arrested by the [REDACTED] and at the present time is on $10,000.00 bail. He gave an address of 27 East 37th Street, New York City, New York.

His trial is scheduled for 6/19/69, in

The April 25 - May 9, 1969, Volume 1, Edition 12, issue of the "Chicago Kaleidoscope," a New Left underground bi-weekly newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, contained the following article:

"CONSPIRATORS:

REPORT FOR DUTY

"The aftermath of Convention week is going to be with us for quite a long time. The Conspiracy, the name which initially referred to the eight protest organizers indicted by the Federal Grand Jury, has expanded to include all people who dare attempt to actively bring about change, or dare discuss it.

"The indicted - Dave Dellinger, Rennie Davis, Tom Hayden, Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin, Lee Weiner, John Froines, and Bobby Seale, have been charged with 'traveling in interstate commerce to incite a riot, teaching the use of incendiary devices having reason to know and intending such devices would be used in a civil disorder, and conspiracy to commit these offenses.' (Quote from U.S. Attorney Thomas Foran's press release following the announcement of the indictments.) If convicted, the defendants can be thrown in jail for as much as five years and be fined up to $10,000 for each charge; with ten years and $20,000 fine being the maximum penalty which can be imposed.

"The trial itself, in Judge Julius Hoffman's court at the Federal building, won't begin until the end of September, and will probably drag on for months (not to mention appeals - if necessary - which could take years if appealed all the way up to the Supreme Court). Motions begin next month.

"During this time, the Conspiracy will have an office in the Loop which will serve as a home base for the defendants and the Conspiracy's lawyers, and be the center for several projects.

"These projects include distributing information to both the overground and underground press; preparing a book written by the Conspirators about Convention week and its aftermath, to be published in paperback by Dell Press; preparing several pamphlets dealing with various aspects of the carnival in the courts; publication of a national newspaper titled Washoi, dealing with repression, Conspiracy law, and the strategy of the defendants, among other things; and organizing a speaker's bureau. 124.

"Needless to say, all this takes a fantastic amount of money, and several fund raising events are being planned. These include benefit concerts (word is Jimi Hendrix has consented to appear in one), Conspiracy Collection Cans, a Conspiracy Tag Day, buttons, posters, bubble gum cards, and items too incredible to mention.

"Free events will also occur - street theatre, television and radio free-for-alls, and so on.

During the entire festival, no arrests were made at the 600 acre site, but many arrests mainly for drug-related offences were made on the roads leading to the site. It is also noted that due to a reported instruction from New York's Commissioner of Police, very few New York City officers actually reported for duty in the Peace Service Corps, their places being taken by off-duty officers hastily recruited in other towns in New York and in New Jersey.

Entertainers at the festival included the following, Joan Baez, Arlo Guthrie, Tim Hardin, Ritchie Havens, the Incredible String Band, Ravi Shankar, Sly and the Family Stone, Bert Sommer, Sweetwater (Friday, August 15). Keef Hartley, the Canned Heat, Credence Clearwater, the Grateful Dead, Janis Joplin, the Jefferson Airplane, Mountain, Quill, Santana, The Who (Saturday, August 16); The Band, Jeff Beck Group, Blood, Sweat and Tears, Joe Cocker, Crosby, Stills and Nash, Jimi Hendrix, the Iron Butterfly, Ten Years After and Johnny Winter (Sunday, August 17). But these were only the entertainers named on the program; the main entertainment (if that is the correct word) was provided by the bizarre people present, one with another and the non-publicized groups, chief of which was a group known as The Quarry, performing away from the main stage, before an audience of an estimated ten thousand.

The Hog Farm, a commune of hippies, now of New Mexico and formerly of New York's Lower East Side were flown in by the festival organizers and constructed a tented commune on one of the camp sites, their leader, Hugh Romney, acting as an official "peace-maker" between the radicals and the festival management. According to the festival's pre-program publicity, The Hog Farm were supposed to act as a supernumerary, yet official arm of the Peace Security Corps, whether they did or not was never established; however they did provide thousands of free meals (boiled rice, lettuce and raisins) and when the LSD (acid) problem became acute they collected many of the worst withdrawal cases, from among the crowd and from the festival's official medical center and cared for them in a quickly constructed tee-pee, where at one time several dozen young people could be found suffering the acute disorders of drug abuse.

The Hog Farm also constructed (they are great builders!) a No. 2 stage which became the center for the most uninhibited rock music, most often played by The Quarry from early afternoon until the early hours of the next day; and this music, so-called, unleashed the most unconstrained and lewd behaviour. To the repetitious thudding of drums males and females would become involved in strange sexual gyrations, and one young man, wearing only a loin

Groups Plan Moratorium Activities

By David Williams

Three UT campus organizations are planning activities throughout the week in conjunction with the November Vietnam Moratorium.

The groups are the UT representatives of the New Mobilization Committee to End the War, the UT Moratorium Committee and the UT chapter of the Young Americans for Freedom.

NEARLY 400 UT students are expected to participate in the New Mobe's March on Death in Washington D.C. They will leave campus at 2 a.m. Friday morning from the visitors parking lot across Stadium Drive from the University Center and will return at 11 p.m. Sunday.

They will join other Tennesseans in a march at the nation's capitol at 4 p.m. Friday. After the march, a state rally is planned to achieve "unity in the peace movement throughout the state." Lonnie Kaufman, UT Mobe representative, said yesterday.

Saturday at 11 a.m. there will be a mass march down Constitution Avenue past the White House, and at 2 p.m. a rally will be held at the Washington Monument. Among those scheduled to appear at the national rally are Jimi Hendrix; Peter, Paul and Mary, Afro Guthrie; the cast from Hair, Tommy

STUDENTS WHO have reserved a space on the Mobe buses will forfeit their deposits if they do not pay balance by tomorrow, Kaufman said.

Alan Gottlieb of the YAF said yesterday that between 700 and 1,000 have signed "Tell it to Hanoi" petitions circulated by his organization. He said that the petitions will "hopefully be delivered personally to President Nixon" by state YAF officers.

The petition asks the government of North Vietnam to "renounce victory in the South; agree to negotiate cease-fire under international supervision; agree to free elections in South Vietnam under international supervision" and abide by these elections.

THE UT CHAPTER of YAF is also sponsoring a discussion of the topic "Is Vietnam Bugging You?" tonight in the University Center Auditorium. Father Daniel Lyons, a member of the American Security Council, will be the guest speaker at the 8 p.m. meeting. Lyons has spent three months in Vietnam annually for the past six years.

At least three members of the UT Moratorium Committee will fast for three days this week in protest of the war. Meredith Katchen, Don Wiley and Peter Kraml will drink only water and eat nothing on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

The Moratorium Committee's program will begin Wednesday at 7 p.m. with a panel discussion in the University Center. The room number will be posted.

FANNY LOTY HAMMER, head of the Mississippi Free Democratic Party, will speak at noon Thursday in the University Center Auditorium. Also on Thursday there will be a continuous program of films and folk singing in the auditorium.

Sen. Charles Goodell (R.-N.Y.) will speak at 4 p.m. Friday in the Music Auditorium.

A booth will be set up in the Rafters Lobby where students will be able to "vote no against war."

GARY CRAWFORD, SGA vice president, endorsing the Moratorium said:

"I believe that it is more important than ever to show our opposition to the war. Nixon's speech has changed nothing. We must not be fooled by his camouflaged policy of continuing the war through fighting it by proxy.

"I urge all students to come out Thursday and support the Moratorium Committee."
